

EARLY START EXPECTED ON CAMP WALKS

Newmarket — The council accepted a sidewalk tender submitted by the Warren Bituminous Paving company on Monday night. New sidewalks to be constructed will be in the army subdivision and on Lorne Ave. at the Stuart Scott school property.

The mayor had promised a delegation from the army camp subdivision last week that work would commence immediately on their new sidewalks but that no guarantee could be made as to whether a percentage of the cost would be charged them or not. That would be up to a council decision on a local improvement policy, according to the mayor.

Councillor Frank Bowser indicated on Monday night that it would be doubtful whether the sidewalks could be constructed this fall because it would take time for the ground to be prepared. An onlooking property owner from the army camp subdivision at the meeting said that the delegation which attended the week before would be "very angry" if the work was not started immediately since the residents in that district had been waiting so long and had been promised sidewalks before.

Councillor Lorne Paynter said, "I would not be a party to having any more sidewalks laid without first preparing the ground with a suitable base. We don't want them like the Armistage Heights sidewalks."

J. B. Waterhouse of the Warren company, who attended the council meeting, stated that their tender called for a gravel base and that the present weather would not affect the construction of the sidewalks. Work is expected to be started shortly.

Award Contract For New Building In Holland Landing

As the sun moves further south, the crisp and chilly days of the fall arrive. Weather just perfect for county fairs. Over the weekend, Schomberg held its fair and, as evident by huge crowds that attended the show, it was a great success. Animal exhibit at fair was feature attraction and so were these horses, which won team show event. Animals, owned by Alvin Austin, Tottenham, are admired here by Noreen Elmer.

Work Progressing At Nkt. Arena, Ask All Assist

"Never thought I would live to see the day" was the way one ardent hockey man expressed his views on the start of the artificial ice program at the Newmarket arena. He wasn't alone in this expression. Work began last Tuesday and a favorite topic and port of call since that event has been the arena. Since Tuesday, bulldozers, steam shovels and trucks have removed over a foot of earth from the cushion.

Trenches are being dug at present for the tile which has to be laid in five lines the full length of the rink. After the tile something like 500 yards of gravel have to be dumped in to insure adequate drainage. Following that, stringers for the pipe have to be placed and then the major task of welding over seven miles of pipe in 20' lengths has to be undertaken.

Ross Howlett, contractor for the work, advises that the pipe is to be shipped on Monday. It was thought earlier in the summer that procurement of pipe might cause delay. So Mr. Howlett's information should allay fears in that direction.

Meanwhile the work of tearing out the front section for rooms to contain ice making equipment, heating equipment, modern dressing rooms and snack bar is going forward without delay. The front wall of the arena proper will be moved out another 25 feet towards Cedar St. to make these changes possible. Actual excavation for the enlarged front began Tuesday afternoon.

The ice surface itself will be some 20 inches longer than before. The boards won't be quite so high, possibly a foot lower. A new feature will be that the skaters or players will step out at ice level.

The ways and means committee has the complete plan of proposed changes and hopes to place these on display on the Main St. in the next week.

Welders from the Canadian Hoffman Machinery Co. have volunteered for this work. Some 15 to 20 have offered their services, which is indeed a fine display of community spirit. There is a need for further voluntary effort in connection with work before the welding. Should you care to help, volunteers at the Davis Leather Co. can leave their names with Art Peppiatt and at the Office Specialty with Charles VanZant. Citizens of other factories or throughout the town can drop into Johnnie at Vic's Shoe Repair and put their names on the list.

Your efforts will be recognized as a list of voluntary work will be compiled and placed to the credit of your contribution to the artificial ice campaign.

Parking Meters By-Law Given First Reading Hope October Installation

Newmarket — The installation of parking meters in the business section of Newmarket is expected to be carried out in the latter part of October. A new parking by-law providing for the meter installation passed first reading at town council meeting on Monday night.

Parking meter zones will be on both sides of Main from Millard to Water Sts., the north side of Park Ave. from Main 100 feet west, the north side of Botsford from Main 80 feet west and the south side of Water St. from Main to Eagle. The meters will affect parking from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., Saturdays 9 a.m. to 10 p.m., and Sundays and holidays excluded.

NEW SCHOOL

Newmarket—Work on the new Prince Charles public school will be started today or tomorrow by the Aurora Building Company, it was announced this morning. The new school is being built at the corner of Strigley St. and Muriel Ave.

HEAR DIRECTOR

The Newmarket Lions club Monday night heard J. Aubrey Holmes, recreation director in Aurora, in an address on recreation. The program was under the chairmanship of Stan Smith. The club gave its enthusiastic support to the diabetes survey.

APPROVE GRANTS

A grant of $400 to the Newmarket Citizens' Band, the balance of $800 which is the annual grant to the band for 1949, was authorized by the town council Monday night. Council also approved of the annual Tennis club grant of $50, and $400 as part of the annual public library grant.

59-YEAR RESIDENT

Mrs. Geo. Spence, Wellington St. E., has been a resident of Aurora for 59 years this month. She married the late Geo. Spence 58 years ago. She is a member of Trinity Anglican church. Her son, George, is living with her.

Crashes Stolen Taxi Outside Policeman's Door

Stepping from a crashed taxi stolen a scant few minutes earlier, John McPhail, of no known address, walked into the waiting arms of Provincial Constable Charles Case, Aurora. Constable Case had just returned from work when a crash occurred outside his home at the south end of Aurora on Yonge St. As McPhail attempted to get away, Case, who had rushed over to be of assistance, seized him.

According to police, the taxi stolen from the lot of Mrs. Norman Eimer, Aurora, travelled six blocks south on Yonge St. and collided with a car driven by G. F. Easterbrook of 215 O'Connor Drive, Toronto. It sheared off a telephone pole, swerved across the road and struck a tree.

FALL DIM-OUTS HYDRO BANS START SAT.

Once again hydro restrictions come into effect in Newmarket, Aurora and throughout Ontario. Scheduled to start the first of the month, the restrictions come two weeks later than last year. A ban on outdoor commercial electric signs, space heaters, grates, radiators and other heating gadgets used commercially will begin this Saturday.

Banned for domestic consumers are space heaters except where there is sickness and water heaters other than those controlled thermostatically. As yet, the Ontario Hydro Commission cannot say whether hydro cuts for all domestic consumers will be necessary. In announcing the restrictions chairman Robert Saunders expressed the hope that all restrictions could be eased by Christmas.

Six Persons Sent To Hospital In Yonge St. Collision

In a daze following a two-car collision in Aurora last Thursday which sent six people to hospital, Joseph Carruthers, 32, 572 Woodbine Ave., Toronto, walked away from the crash and awoke some time later in a taxi near Langstaff. He told police that he felt sick and proceeded from there to his home where police found him that evening.

According to police the crash occurred when Carruthers pulled out to pass another car and collided head-on with a south-bound car.

Removed to York County Memorial hospital at Newmarket were Earlson Thompson, 38, 500 Clendennan Ave., Toronto, owner of the car driven by Carruthers, with a fractured left leg and cuts to the head and face, and passengers Mrs. Agnes Frogley, 29, 223 Erskine Ave., Toronto, Miss Audrey Clark, 22, 17 1/2 Christie St., Toronto, and Mrs. Frances Elgie, 30 Coldwater St., Orillia, with lacerations to the head, face and hands.

Donald Cunningham, 19, Oak Ridges, a hitch-hiker riding in the south-bound car, suffered severe head and hand lacerations. Driver of the car in which he was riding, Robert W. Mucklestone, 34, 617 Pape Ave., Toronto, was released from hospital following treatment for minor cuts and bruises.

According to Mucklestone, a north-bound car slowed down for a truck preparing to back onto the highway. A driver behind him pulled out to avoid hitting the car. "He came right at me," he said. "Although I was nearly stopped we crashed head-on."

A driver from North End Taxi, Aurora, Fred Gardiner, administered first aid with the assistance of two Sisters of St. John who were driving by at the time. Dr. Crawford Rose, Aurora, later attended the injured.

Mucklestone had gone into business for himself only a few weeks ago and had just purchased the car. Having survived two plane crashes without injury, one in which all passengers but himself were killed, he feels he has a charmed life. The accident is being investigated by Aurora Constable William Langman.

Free T.B. X-Rays Offered Aurora Citizens As Part Of National Campaign

On Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons and evenings it will be possible for everyone in Aurora to receive an x-ray at the special mobile x-ray unit now parked in front of Aurora United church. Part of the nationwide campaign against tuberculosis, the x-ray unit is sponsored here in Aurora by the Aurora Lions club.

Technicians running the mobile unit Wednesday expressed the hope that everyone in Aurora would avail themselves of this opportunity. If trouble is detected by the x-ray the individual will receive word of it. It is requested that women planning to have an x-ray taken refrain from wearing jewelry-laden dresses. The plainer the clothes, the better say the experts.

Walk By-Law Read 3rd Time

The third and final reading on the $20,000 debenture by-law for repairing and building new sidewalks was unanimously passed by Newmarket council Monday night. It had been earlier voted down by council because no payment policy had been set. The council made the sudden move after stalling the by-law for over a month. It has already been approved by the Ontario municipal board.

FRIENDS FETE COCKBURNS ON ANNIVERSARY

Their neighbors on Court St. Newmarket, gave Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Cockburn a 25th anniversary party in the agricultural board rooms on Friday night. Mr. Cockburn has been agricultural representative for York county for many years. A purse of silver, contributed by the neighbors, was presented to the couple. Over 60 were present.

The party was organized by Mrs. Colin Widdifield and Mrs. George Wilson. Speakers were Rusty Rogers and Sanford King, the former bringing gales of laughter with his recollections of the past. Mr. Colin Widdifield read the address of presentation. Don Cockburn showed the party wedding pictures from the family album and George Lutesby his colored films of gardens. Mrs. Clair Blosdale was at the piano for the sing-song and Mrs. Len Little was soloist, accompanied by her daughter, Mary Lou.

The hall was decorated to resemble the home. The refreshments served by the ladies were excellent.

OPERATED ON

Miss J. Doolittle, Aurora, nurse-in-training at St. Joseph's hospital, had her appendix removed on Sunday. The last report is she is doing fine.

Stress Scientific Purpose Of Survey

The diabetes survey committee for Newmarket under the chairmanship of Dr. J. G. Cock received the town council's official promise of assistance on Monday night. The council assured its co-operation and also the financial responsibility which is required in the general organization of the survey.

Said Mayor Jos. Vale, "The council is fully behind the project. We will be glad to take on expenses for general organization."

Dr. Cock stressed the importance of obtaining an accurate survey that would cover both young and old equally and those of all income levels, but emphasized that only people who live in the town would be eligible.

He said that although it would mean a lot to each individual in Newmarket and bring the town favorable publicity, it is important that no one lost sight of the scientific purpose of the survey.

Newmarket is chosen as a typical Canadian town in that it has an average balance of all ages and all types of people. All must be tested.

Only three things are needed

Council was advised to pass a resolution that would accept a tender and open the way for the construction of the sidewalks immediately. "The by-law says nothing about how you must pay for them," declared the solicitor.

Cast Off This Week Griffiths Thanks Many Friends

A total of $18.75 has been received for the Griffiths Fund since contributors were last acknowledged, bringing the total over $175.

Bob Griffiths is a young English immigrant whose neck was broken last summer. The fund was started when warm-hearted fellow immigrants began sending financial aid to him, contributions which were quickly supplemented by the generosity of Newmarket citizens and those of the surrounding district.

It is expected that the cast will be removed this week and the grateful young man, who has become a familiar sight in Newmarket, will have once more his freedom of movement. He had tears in his voice as he expressed his gratitude to all those who had assisted him. He was with-

Ten thousand-mile cruise in northern Pacific waters ended, H.M.C.S. Cedarwood, Canadian naval experimental ship, reached her home port at Esquimalt last week after an absence of two and one-half months. During part of her voyage she was in the company of U.S. naval experimental vessels and conducted an oceanographic survey off the Aleutians.

Brownhill News

The trees of our little village have begun to change their color and achieve the beautiful hue of gold. The gardeners have pretty nearly all gathered their pumpkins and potatoes. The housewives have been very busy getting all their jars filled with this year's fruits and most of them can hardly keep out of their cellars they are so happy over the delicious looking store. Yes, many will be ready for Thanksgiving with real thanks in their hearts.

Mrs. Les. Nelson is still quite ill and we of Brown Hill hope for a full recovery for her.

Mr. Albert Lee had his two nephews from Toronto visiting him last Sunday.

Miss Shirley Sedore of Brown Hill has been taking care of Mrs. Emeline Sedore since Sept. 22 and is doing a very good job.

Mrs. Michael Crissitt has been ill with the flu.

Miss Bernice Rye of Pefferlaw and Mr. Carl Eliot visited Mr. and Mrs. Roy Crouch a short while last Sunday.

Mrs. Flossie Comer and daughter Irene visited Mrs. Emeline Sedore last Saturday evening.

There was a very good attendance last Sunday at our little Free Methodist church. There were folk from Baldwin, Pefferlaw and Egypt Corners and from other surrounding localities. It seemed like old times to have such a fine attendance and Rev. Loukes gave a very fine sermon. Rev. Loukes is the Evangelist in charge of these revival meetings at the Free Methodist church.

Mrs. C. Corps has been very ill.

Mr. Kenneth Williamson is now home with a serious heart condition and is trying to obey the doctor's orders and get complete rest. Many will remember him better as the Rawleigh dealer until he was in war service. Brown Hill and his many friends wish him a speedy recovery.

The Revival meetings are to be continued until next Sunday, Oct. 2.

Mrs. J. Brady from Northmount, and Mrs. E. C. Taylor from Bradford are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Corps for a week.

SCOUTS HOLD DANCE

The first Scout dance this season, held Friday, Sept. 23, was honored by the presence of J. A. Snow, Willowdale. The dance was well attended. The Scouts would like to thank the Girl Guides who came to show the boys who could not dance how it is done. They did a good job.

There are still openings in the troop for more boys. There will be a parade Sunday, Oct. 2, at Thornhill. Scouts meet Thursday at 7 p.m., Cubs Friday at 7 p.m.

MOUNT ZION

There will be Sunday school Sunday at 10 a.m. Preaching at 11 a.m. Mr. Yates is in charge. The W.M.S. quilting will be held on Wednesday, Oct. 5 at 1 a.m. at the home of Mrs. James Morris.

The W.M.S. will put on a missionary program in the Free Methodist church at Belhaven Tuesday, Oct. 4 at 8 p.m.

Glad to see a good attendance out to Sunday school Sunday morning but there are some scholars that we are missing we would like to see out to Sunday school.

OTTAWA LETTER

by

"Jack" Smith, M.P.
North York

Canada's 21st parliament is now in session, the fanfare and ceremonial is over and the members are hard at work. It is interesting to speculate on what may occur during the five-year lifetime of this parliament. They are certain to be eventful years in the history of Canada and the world.

Electing 193 members in the June 27 election, the government has the largest majority ever accorded a party in the history of Canadian parliament. The commons lacks the feminine touch for the first time since 1921 when Agnes MacPhail was elected as a progressive. All 15 women candidates in the last election were defeated, including Mrs.
Strum who represented Qu'Appelle, Sask., in the last house.
The number of seats is now 262, the redistribution bill making ten new seats and the entry of Newfoundland seven more.

Air Cleared
Business of the House already is away to a good start. There is a great difference in the atmosphere now as compared to the session earlier this year.
Then the air was charged with political lightning. The election has cleared the air and there is a decided lack of politics in the session so far. The leader of the opposition has declared that the people have spoken and so far as he and his party are concerned they will co-operate in the business of government to the fullest possible extent reserving of course the right to criticize when they see fit. This is indeed refreshing and augurs well for a fruitful session.

The 21st parliament is marked by the presence for the first time of representatives of the new province of Newfoundland. They were fittingly welcomed in the speech from the throne. By the admission of the new province Canada attained the geographical limits planned by the fathers of confederation, and some of the main business of the present session will be legislation designed to facilitate the attainment of the constitutional limits of our nationhood.

Bills will be introduced making the Supreme Court of Canada the final court of appeal, and giving us the right to amend our own constitution without appeal to the British parliament. The latter has been advocated by leading members of all parties for many years, and for a long time the reference of constitutional changes to the British House has been a mere formality. A conference of provincial representatives will be held with the federal government upon finding an appropriate procedure for future amendments to our constitution as the need may arise. It has been said that this will be known as the "Constitutional session", and the lawyers will have a field day with these proposed changes in the constitution before the House.

Housing
The government has lost no time in getting down to business on the housing question and an important announcement of policy was made this week by the minister of reconstruction and supply. It is estimated that 100,000 new housing units will be built in Canada this year, but this will barely meet current needs and hardly touch the back log of demand.

The new policy provides for loans that will approximately cut in half the down payments on reasonably priced homes. The new policy has been well received here. A government booklet has been published giving all details of the National Housing Act and telling just how to go about building a home under this plan. I will be pleased to send one to anyone interested.

Monetary matters have been well to the fore in consideration here this week. The devaluation of the pound sterling and the Canadian dollar were steps which will have far reaching repercussions. There are bound to be several short-term complications but in spite of all it is considered a constructive and courageous move which in the long run will be in the best interests of all.

This session will last until early December and during that time I will be here in Ottawa.
I trust that as in the past people of North York will feel free to write me giving me their views on local or national problems, or if I can be of any assistance to them in any way. The address,
J. E. Smith, M.P., Parliament Buildings, Ottawa. No stamp is required on the envelope.

Farm Philosopher says:

"YOU CAN'T
COMPLAIN"

Overworked soil does its complaining in a quiet way but a sure one, gradually letting you down on the quantity and quality of your crop yield.
The job of restoring worn-out soil to fertility is a slow one, so you'll be wise to have doubtful soil tested by an expert from your nearest experimental farm or agricultural college. In experienced hands soil testing indicates what has to be done to make farm land an asset instead of a liability.

We were careless Saturday night, going to bed and leaving the comic section where our children could find it. Now Geoff, our eldest, shows a marked interest in this social document and it falls upon the author of this disaster to answer his questions and explain why the Katzenjammer Kids are trying to drown the Captain, and why Louie is fishing under a "No Fishing" sign. It seems an endless task. The minds of little children just do not seem capable of absorbing the absurdities of comic strip situations.

Fortunately, Geoff has shown no interest yet in the life and times of Lower Slobbovia, nor is he particularly interested in Little Orphan Annie's social philosophy. The Captain and the Kids and Louie have engaged him closely, however, and if we read and explained those two comic strips to him once, we did it a dozen times over the weekend. And always to a constantly reiterated "Why?"

Most newspaper men know of Bob Edwards, late editor of the Calgary Eye Opener, a rowdy news sheet which in its own way had as much influence in the west before the first great war as the Winnipeg Free Press did in more recent years. He was a colorful character with a sharp wit and ready pen. Undoubtedly he was much a scamp but a very engaging scamp.

An incident characteristic of the man came about when he approached Lord Bennett, then counsel for the C.P.R., to have him use his influence to obtain permission for Edwards to sell his newspaper on the trains. Bennett agreed to do what he could but nothing ever came of it.

Edwards again approached Bennett and was little encouraged. Shortly afterwards, Edwards began to print on his front page pictures of all the C.P.R. wrecks regardless of when or where they had occurred, under the simple heading: "Another C.P.R. Train Wreck".

When Bennett called him about these pictures, Edwards replied he was "reporting the news", but the next issue of the paper contained an excellent picture of Bennett under the same caption, "Another C.P.R. Wreck". Such antics, of course, did not endear him with those in authority but his readers loved it.

Incidents like the above are the material from which C.B.C. has fashioned a weekly radio series, "The Saga of Bob Edwards", and an interesting program it is. Listening to it, one is struck by the contrast between Bob Edwards, and the Calgary Eye-Opener of his making, and the scurrilous little pamphlet which bore the same name and was hawked from under the counter in bookstores in the late 20's. The latter day edition was nothing more than a collection of poor jokes and pictures of chorus girls.

We read an anonymous article in the Saturday Evening Post in which the tricks of rigging carnival games were exposed by a practising operator. The wheels and the games he described made it absolutely impossible for the player to win unless the operator permitted him to as a lure for the crowd. It seems incredible to us that with the odds already so much against the player, the operators should go to the trouble and risk of rigging the game to increase their chances. That's really gilding the lily.

From the Files of 25 and 50 Years Ago

Plans for the erection of one of the finest war memorials in Canada have been completed by the Aurora War Memorial Association, according to the files of 25 years ago. An objective of $25,000 has been set. The memorial will be erected south of the town and will take the form of a pillar, 73 feet high, surmounted by an electric torch. The pillar is to be granite and of Scottish Gothic design.

A fruit and poultry farm on Gorman St. belonging to Mr. John Shanks has been sold to Mr. Basset of West Toronto who takes possession November 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Williams and son, who have been spending several weeks with Mrs. Thos. Williams, left for their home at Scranton, Penn., on Monday.

The Young People's C.E. Society of St. Andrew's church held a corn roast at the home of Rev. J. E. Scott, Prospect Ave. Games and a sing-song completed the evening.

Good market last Saturday especially in fruit and vegetables. Eggs sold from 35 to 38 cents a doz., butter from 38 to 40 cents a lb. Potatoes were 75 cents to $1 a bag, apples 25 to 40 cents a basket. Crabapples sold from 25 to 50 cents a basket and plums 50 to 60 cents. Red peppers were selling at 30 cents a doz., strained clover honey 15 cents a lb., and cauliflower from ten to 25 cents each.

Mr. Herbert Atkins of the Bell Telephone staff has purchased the home of the late C. C. Webb on Botsford St.

Rev. A. P. Addison, formerly of Newmarket, has been elected president of the Toronto Methodist Ministerial Association.

The Harvest Home Festival held at St. Paul's church on Wednesday evening was successful and the proceeds were $50, according to the files of 50 years ago. The ladies served a supper of cold chicken, tongue and ham, salads, pastry and fruit in the school rooms. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers, grain and vegetables and the chancel and altar were trimmed with green vines and white asters. The sermon was by Rev. A. H. Baldwin of All Saints, Toronto, and the choir sang special chants for the occasion.

Mr. Starr, Whitechurch, won first prize for a span of draught horses at the fair and was offered $400 for the team on the grounds.

Mr. E. A. Bogart of the Ontario Bank has been promoted to the position of teller at the Ottawa branch.

Good market last Saturday. Eggs were firm at 14 cents a doz. and butter from 17 to 20 cents a lb. Potatoes dropped to 40 cents a bag, and apples sold from $1.10 to $1.25 a barrel.

The Hicksville Friends on Yonge St. held their half yearly meeting last Sunday and Monday. Isaac Wilson, Bloomfield, was the principal speaker.

Mr. Frank Traviss, son of Mr. Thos. Traviss, Newmarket, who was at that Portage for about a year, has gone to Dakota and writes home that he is getting $2.50 a day.

The Editorials:

Work Begun On Arena

Work has begun at the arena, thereby confounding the sceptics and confirming the hopes of the enthusiasts. It seems certain that there will be ice in the arena before Christmas. It may still have to be paid for but there will be ice.

The sponsors of artificial ice are in the awkward position where the methods of other municipalities represent indirect criticism of Newmarket's way. Aurora is debenturing the whole cost, $65,000. Stouffville's ice is being installed as a private corporation with private risk. Newmarket is financing artificial ice partly by debentures, partly by contributions. The other two municipalities offer at least the virtue of consistency; Newmarket's methods appear contradictory.

This conclusion, one which is somewhat general in town, is unfair. It does not consider the realities of the situation. The case for Newmarket's method rests first on realistic appraisal of the feeling in town towards artificial ice. There was and is good reason to doubt that a vote on a debenture for artificial ice would be negative if the whole cost were involved. To return the arena to private hands for the private installation of artificial ice would defeat the purpose for which the arena was originally purchased, to afford greater opportunity for its use to the town. The remaining choice was Newmarket's way.

That, however, is only one side of Newmarket's position. The other is the real advantages to be found in such compromise financing. The first is the great saving in cost provided by the contributions of time and labor which would not be forthcoming if the cost were debentured or assumed privately. The second is that those who are not taxpayers and so would not be required to assist in the cost if it were debentured for, can and are giving their share towards the project. This is applicable not only within the town but outside as well. These two factors have greatly reduced Newmarket's estimated cost of artificial ice installation. Under the circumstances, it appears to us that the committee responsible for financing the project has taken the only reasonable course. It remains now to justify the demand for artificial ice by all of us, in town and out, taxpayer or lessee, backing that demand by contributing all that we reasonably can in time, money and material to bring this project to a successful conclusion.

Diabetes Survey

The diabetes survey will enhance Newmarket's prestige and bring considerable favorable publicity. Individual townsfolk will receive the advantages of a free examination for diabetes. There is the danger, however, that these by-products of the survey may obscure its purely scientific purpose.

Newmarket was not chosen because of some virtue of its citizens, or because of a desire to give us a free examination for diabetes. Newmarket has a population which in its proportion of children to parents and the middle-aged to the aged, in its variety of pursuits and the proportion of those engaged in them, reflects the national figure. Newmarket, in a word, is a representative Canadian town and the incidence of diabetes here will indicate the incidence of diabetes in Canada. Newmarket was chosen, too, because of its proximity to Toronto, so that it is for quite impersonal reasons that Newmarket has been chosen and that same indifference to individual wish and community benefit will prevail throughout the survey. That is, after all, only common sense.

For purposes of the survey, we must all of us accept a degree of anonymity, subordinate our personal wishes where they conflict with procedure. But if that is so we also have it in our power to determine the success or failure of the survey by our willingness to accept the humble role assigned to us.

Why should we put ourselves out? There are sound reasons the most important of which is that by a small effort we will have added to medical knowledge of a disease, made a contribution towards the saving of lives. That is the most important reason, quite overshadowing any other motive.

So far, all who have been approached have been enthusiastic in their acceptance of the survey and their desire to assist it to a successful conclusion. Let us maintain this spirit. If a coincidence of statistics and geography has made our town the logical choice for such a survey, let us accept the coincidence with gratitude for it has given us all a chance to contribute to the advancement of medical knowledge. Remember too, that this is the first such survey made in Canada. We can set an example which will make subsequent surveys a success.

The state is the servant, not the master, of the people; the state is their guarantee against infringement on their rights, their agent in international and national issues; it is not the function of the state to assume the direction of those activities which rest on individual choice.

Danger Of Apathy

The atomic explosion in Russia is generally taken to mean that the Russians have learned how to make an atomic bomb. It should not be surprising despite the efforts of the daily press to make a sensation out of it with their headlines. It has been generally conceded that the knowledge required to build an atomic bomb could not remain the exclusive property of one nation indefinitely. At the time the United States first used the bomb, it was estimated that Russia would possess the necessary knowledge in five years or so and that time has almost elapsed.

We cannot see that confirmation of the suspicion of Russian advances along this line necessarily changes the respective positions of east and west as world powers. The United States first possessed the secret and Russia did not. Russia apparently knows what the United States knew five years ago but in that time, the United States has built up a stock pile of atomic weapons as well as adding greatly to its knowledge of atomic fission. Russia, it must be presumed, still has that handicap to overcome before it can claim equal knowledge with the United States.

The danger to the west is in the attitude that if east and west came to blows, the enormity of the weapon possessed by each would cancel out its use. Both the Axis and the Allies possessed vast stores of poison gas but it was not used in the last war because each feared the dangers of retaliation. The same situation applies with the atom bomb, it is argued.

The danger is that such reasoning gives a false sense of security, with its relaxation of an effort to maintain our present superiority over Russia. Possibly the atom bomb will never be used; we devoutly hope not. But if we accept this as more than a possibility, a faint one at that, we are preparing our own destruction. Any consideration which might relax our vigilance, our search for the constant improvement of our defences against Russia, is an invitation to disaster.

Fort Erie Has The Idea

Main Street's light and power poles are not things of beauty despite their usefulness. Their appearance is not improved by the rag and tatter of faded election posters. When freshly tacked up, such forms of advertising do have a certain decorative value although tiresome in their repetition, and they do help inform the public. Were they removed when their usefulness is done, there would be no complaint. They aren't and there is.

Fort Erie now prohibits the placing of posters on any of the municipality's utility poles. Mayor Ziff explains that it is part of the municipality's "beautification drive". And a sensible move it is. Perhaps the Newmarket town council will give some thought to following Fort Erie's lead.

Cost Of Water

"Water," said a farmer friend, "is the most expensive cost there is against the farmer." Our friend had a long face. He was thinking of his half-empty silo and barn. He had cultivated his land in a manner to best hold the water and he took the other precautions farmers do to preserve his crop. But the drought had halved his expected return from his labor.

Our friend was not, of course, thinking of direct charges for water although water was trucked this summer. He was thinking of what the lack of water meant in money paid out for hay and feed to supplement his own supplies. He was thinking, too, of the inconvenience and its cost in wasted time.

We are not inclined to think in terms of these apparently reversed economics but they do have validity as in the case of our friend. Water is an asset, the lack of which is a heavy charge against us. We take it so for granted that the way has been prepared for its acute shortage unless remedial measures are undertaken. Perhaps if we thought more of what the lack of water can cost, we would be less wasteful, and think twice before we further destroyed the sources of moisture in our land.

Daylight saving time is confusing enough but when Newmarket remains on it while the rest of the world returns to the standard time, the complications are further increased. Consider the radio listener. What confusion there must be for him with all his favorite programs an hour later than usual.

Hydro restrictions are effective on Saturday, thus beginning another fall season in keeping with what has become a regular practice. Newmarket was most fortunate last year in that it had a hard-working and public-minded commission and a co-operative population. We were spared the worst of the cuts. No doubt the same spirit will prevail this fall.

If you want to do some desultory reading of a stormy night, here, try a good cook book. Good cook books usually have a deal of heterogeneous material covering general topics from gardening to philosophy, oh, yes, and cooking.

While looking up a recipe for Isabella I discovered how social usages pertaining to food evolved. Since before civilization, the good cook book said, the contact of one individual with another and that of an individual with a group, in fact, all the life of human beings (to say nothing of cats) in all stages of culture has been primarily controlled by a vast mass of folkways handed down from the earliest existence of the race.

First I heard of it! What had that to do with cheese souffles? Well, nothing, which shows that a cook book really isn't a cook book. I should think that cook books ought to entitle themselves "Cooking, Gardening, Philosophy and other Interesting Subjects" instead of hiding themselves under the general title "Cooking". (You may reprint this on your page, too, Mrs. Housemaker, editor, for a fee.)

Also I quoted a man named Sumner who once said, "Custom regulates the whole of a man's actions—his bathing, washing, cutting his hair, drinking and fasting. From his cradle to his grave he is the slave of ancient usage. In his life there is nothing free, nothing original, nothing spontaneous."

That's sure a sweep of a generalization, that! But one. It's lucky thing there are a few independent free wheezing males like us, boss, to give him the lie.

As your office cat in charge of the elimination of unnecessary English usages such as cliches, I have interviewed a cliché expert over the weekend in a text book. This is how the interview went:

Mr. Arbutnot, you are an expert in the use of the cliché, are you not?

Yes, I am a certified public cliché expert.

Would you answer a few questions on the use and application of the cliché?

Glad to.

What is your occupation at the moment?

At the moment I am an unidentified man of about 40, shabbily clad.

And you expect to live to . . .

A ripe old age.

What do you think? — My lucky stars.

What kind of retreats do you like? — Hasty retreats.

What do you do to hasty retreats? — I beat them.

How right are you? — I am dead right.

What kind of meals do you like? — Square meals.

What do you do to them? — Ample justice.

And you are destined . . . — To go far.

What do you pursue? — The even tenor of my way.

Ever pursue the odd tenor of your way?

Oh no, I would lose my standing as a cliché expert if I did that.

What do you throw? — I throw caution.

Where? — To the winds.

The announcement that the North York Federation of agriculture is forming township units of the federation of agriculture brings up the question of what could and should a township unit do. The central group has put the onus on the townships. In the past our policies have been thought out by a group at the top. This move is to make the men and women on the farm figure out their own policies.

It would seem that this has come at an opportune time. For some years the farm forum has been training the farm people to think collectively. Who should know better than the people on the farm what is needed? Do we need an organization to work for the farmer close to home?

We are losing money on many things. Two are the sale of baby pigs and poultry. The prices offered and many times accepted are not within reason. We could hold a township auction sale every month where our stock would be sold by competitive buying. This would put a stop to those half-ton trucks with two men and misrepresentations of prices. We could stop some leaks this way in our farm income.

The hog producers report that 114 hog carcasses were condemned for tuberculosis in Canada last year. 92 were from Ontario farms and 65 percent of the 92 were from 18 farms. 35 percent of the condemnations paid last year were for arthritis. Here is something that a local unit could go to work on. When people write to the veterinary service in our farm papers about cripples in hogs, the answer is feed a balanced ration. Why should we all have to pay condemnation insurance because some will not feed their stock with the right rations? Men know their stock is not right and will not change.

This is where a local committee could see that farmers did clean up their pens and herds, or accept the risk of losing the price of their stock. A unit could take advantage of the boar premium policy and take out the scrub boars from the township, put in boars of known blood lines and stop so much inbreeding. Disease has become so bad that breeders don't like to see stock come on the farm for service. Poultry disease is so bad that poultry men will allow no one but the attendant in the poultry houses.

There are the cream producers to be organized into county units. So far little work has been done in the counties. Every farmer and farm woman has his own individual idea of what would help the rural people. What we must have is one organization to form a policy that is acceptable to all farm people.

We have probably in each school section around 75 farmers. Surely we could get one interested farmer or farm woman in each school section that would call a meeting or attend a meeting some one else would call. We have around ten to 12 school sections in each township. A committee of ten people would be enough to call a township meeting for the purpose of forming a township federation. Ten more members on the executive board, one from each township unit, would give us a good strong working group for the farmers' interests.

The dollar problem is going to affect the farmers. At the time of writing no one knows what the new food contracts are going to be or if there are to be any. The farmer in the east must have a fair relation of grain price to live stock prices. If we can't buy western grain and feed live stock at a profit there is little if any use in having a food contract when we cannot supply a constant amount to fill a contract. Continued next week. Cheerio.

THE OLD HOME TOWN By STANLEY

Foote-Notes

BY WILLIAM FOOTE
AURORA EDITOR

For over two months now there has been considerable talk of the formation of a Metropolitan Police Force for Toronto and district. This issue was brought to a head as a result of this year's notorious and numerous mid-summer murders.

This sudden taxing of all police facilities revealed the weaknesses inherent in the present system of individual police forces covering separate segments of Toronto and district. The need for complete co-ordination and co-operation of all police forces throughout the area was strikingly apparent.

We are primarily interested in York County north of Thornhill. In this area law enforcement is in the hands of the York County Police, the Ontario Provincial Police and municipal police forces. The co-ordination between these various departments is none too good. Like those of Toronto and district, it could be improved upon.

There are many examples to illustrate the need for greater integration between the enforcement agencies policing York County. One of the most common is that of the wrong department receiving a call to an accident. They must inform the caller that the spot where the accident took place is out of their jurisdiction and that one of the other departments must be contacted. This necessitates a number of phone calls, as only the Ontario Provincial Police are equipped with radio, and a phone call to an officer of another force may draw a blank if he is out on a call.

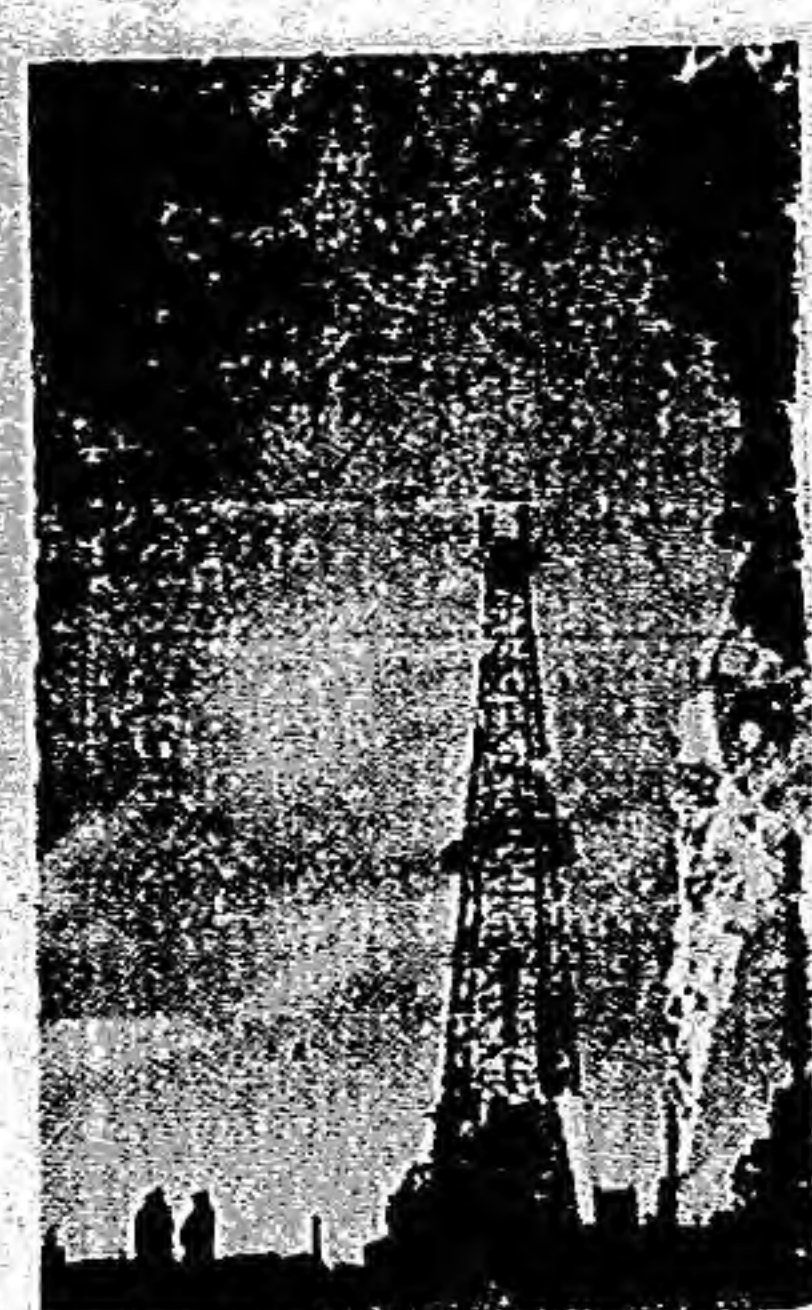

Thus, valuable time may be easily lost, and always with the possibility of regrettable consequences.

In addition, there is, to a certain extent, poor co-ordination between any individual force policing York County and the Toronto Police. This was graphically illustrated this summer. The Toronto police requested that the Newmarket police be on the lookout for a particular person. Although Toronto apprehended the man, Newmarket was not informed and continued to search for him for some time afterwards.

These are not the faults of the individual officer or police force. By and large their work is strictly top drawer. Rather, the fault lies in the fact that York County is divided into many segments policed separately by a number of autonomous forces. These forces are too much out of touch with each other for all practical purposes.

The discussion of a metropolitan force for Toronto and district suggests a remedy for our own situation. While the whole area could be policed by one force, it is not foreseeable in the near future. It should be possible, however, to have a strategically placed police despatcher who would receive all phone calls for police assistance in the county and thereupon set in motion the particular force or forces required. If this were supplemented with radio, it would be a far-reaching improvement.

What Will Devaluation Mean?

Oil men are wondering if their hopes of supplying mid-western states with Alberta oil will be advanced or retarded by Canadian dollar devaluation.

Canada's gold mines will profit to the extent that they will now receive $38.50 per ounce for gold instead of $35. Steel and other exporting metal industries will also profit in U.S. trade.

Finance Minister Abbott's announcement of the devaluation of the Canadian dollar, following Sir Stafford Cripps' lowering of the British pound, puts international trade on a new basis. Canada, fifth trading nation of the world, has a major interest in the outcome of the devaluation of both currencies.

Devaluation news sent stock markets booming. Full effects of the change in currency values is not yet apparent to investors, but a rise in Canadian living costs is inevitable with U.S. goods raised ten percent in price. Ultimate result is hoped to be a lowering of living costs.

Vandorf News

At the Congregational Family night of Wesley United church a weiner roast was held in Mr. White's field. A good program of sing-songs and impromptu selections led by Mr. Roy Langford of Newmarket was very much enjoyed. An important event of the evening was a presentation on behalf of the Vandorf community of a lovely walnut table to Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Dike who were married recently. Weiners and marshmallows were enjoyed by all.

Arrangements are being started in preparing a Sacred Cantata "The Rolling Season" to be given by Wesley church choir early in November.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kingdon, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Cousins spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Griffith of Thistleton.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. White, Agincourt, visited Mr. and Mrs. H. A. White on Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. George Covey, Toronto, visited Mr. and Mrs. Roy Morley on Sunday.

Wesley United church choir supplied the special music at Snowball United church Harvest Home services on Sunday, Sept. 25.

This community wishes to express its deepest sympathy to Mr. Steven Komar in the loss of his mother who lived in Aurora.

Mrs. Joe Sullivan visited her son, Mr. Eddie West, and Mrs. West at Guelph.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Broderick, Toronto, visited their aunt, Miss Louise Carroll.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Burnett entertained a few immediate relatives on Sunday in honor of Mr. Burnett's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Aylett of Toronto spent the weekend with their son, Mr. Sidney Aylett, and Mrs. Aylett.

Mrs. A. Wright, Charlie and Joe visited Mr. and Mrs. Bert Baber on Monday evening.

Miss Sylvia Smith of Toronto, spent the weekend with Miss Ruth Oliver.

Mr. Kenneth Switzer of Longlac visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Switzer on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Melville Nelson and son Roy of Huntsville, visited Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Oliver.

We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Jack Robinson and daughters, Jacqueline and Donna, of Thornton, to this community.

KETTLBY

Attention, all members of Christ church Sunday-school. On Sunday, Oct. 2, we are returning to our winter schedule. Sunday-school will meet at 2 p.m. instead of 11 a.m. We hope all our members will be present.

Our Harvest Festival services held on Sunday, Sept. 25, were well attended and we should like to thank all the visitors who came to make it a real thanksgiving, especially those from the congregations of Kettleby churches. As Kettleby United is holding its Harvest Home on Sunday, Oct. 2, there will be no service in Christ church, but we hope many of our members will join it in its services.

Flowers used in the decoration of Christ church were sent to Brampton hospital.

Members of our congregation offer their deepest sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. C. Wilson and family in their recent bereavement.

Because the earth's atmosphere bends the moon's rays, the moon is not actually where it appears to be when looked at from the ground.

REGULATIONS

applying to certain uses of

ELECTRICITY IN ONTARIO

The Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario announces the following regulations made under the Power Commission Act and to become effective October 1st, 1949.

- PART I
WATER HEATERS
- (1) Unless water heaters operated by electrical power are—
 - (a) equipped with thermostatic control; and
 - (b) installed in or on tanks which are thermally insulated with a minimum of 1 inch in thickness of glass- or rock-wool insulation, or other material having at least the same heat insulating capacity, no municipality or municipal commission receiving electrical power from the Commission shall supply or use or permit to be supplied or used by any person the electrical power or any part thereof for the operation of water heaters installed or replaced after the date of publication of these regulations in The Ontario Gazette under The Regulations Act, 1944.
 - (2) No person shall take from any municipality or municipal commission any electrical power received from the Commission and use it in a manner contrary to the provisions of subregulation 1.
 - (3) No person shall take any electrical power procured from the Commission and use it for the operation of water heaters in a manner contrary to the provisions of subregulation 1.
- PART II
SPACE HEATERS
- (1) No municipality or municipal commission receiving electrical power from the Commission shall supply or use or permit to be supplied or used by any person electrical power or any part thereof for the operation of air-heaters, grates, radiators, heaters or any other device for space heating in hotels, tourist cabins, shops, offices, commercial premises and, except in the case of sickness, residences.
 - (a) No person shall take from any municipality or municipal commission any electrical power received from the Commission and use it in a manner contrary to the provisions of subregulation 1.
 - (b) No person shall take any electrical power procured from the Commission and use it in a manner contrary to the provisions of subregulation 1.
 - (2) Subregulation 1, 2 and 3 shall not apply to space heating in:
 - (a) water-pumping stations;
 - (b) telephone relay- and repeater-stations;
 - (c) radio-beam stations; and
 - (d) municipally-owned electric-substations, where no person is regularly in attendance.
- PART III
LIGHTING
- (1) No municipality or municipal commission receiving electrical power from the Commission shall supply or use or permit to be supplied or used by any person electrical power or any part thereof for:
 - (a) subject to subregulation 2, lighting of interiors of shops, show-windows and offices except:
 - (i) not more than 1 watt per square foot of gross floor-area of a shop during business hours, and after cessation of business with the public not more than 1 watt per square foot of the gross floor area of that part of the shop where the staff is actually working;
 - (ii) not more than 10 watts per lineal foot of width of show-windows of shops between 4.30 p.m. and 9 p.m. and only while the shop is open for business;
 - (iii) not more than 2 watts per square foot of gross floor-area of an office during office hours, and after office hours not more than 2 watts per square foot of gross floor-area of that part of the office where the staff is actually working;
 - (iv) for the protection of property after business hours not more than 5 watts per 100 square feet of gross floor-area of a shop or office, or 40 watts per shop or office whichever is the greater;
 - (b) lighting of exterior signs;
 - (c) exterior flood- or outline-lighting for decorative, ornamental or advertising purposes;
 - (d) lighting of outdoor Christmas trees;
 - (e) lighting of parking-lots, used-car lots, service stations, outdoor industrial premises and outdoor playing fields except:
 - (i) not more than 10 watts per 100 square feet of parking-lot space while open for business;
 - (ii) not more than 10 watts per 100 square feet of that portion of used-car lots used for display space while open for business, and not more than 5 watts per 100 square feet of the used-car lot after cessation of business;
 - (iii) not more than 40 watts per gasoline pump in a service station, exclusive of lighting not exceeding 25 watts inside the pump meter compartment, while the service station is open for business;
 - (iv) not more than 10 watts per 100 square feet of that portion of used-car lots used for display space while open for business, and not more than 5 watts per 100 square feet of the used-car lot after cessation of business;
 - (2) The lighting permitted for shops during business hours under subregulations 1 and 2 of clause (a) of subregulation 1 shall include the lighting of interior signs, merchandise-displays and show-windows.
 - (3) No person shall take from any municipality or municipal commission any electrical power received from the Commission and use it in a manner contrary to the provisions of subregulation 1 of regulation 3.
 - (4) No person shall take any electrical power procured from the Commission and use it in a manner contrary to the provisions of subregulation 1 of regulation 3.
 - (5) Subregulation 1 of regulation 3 and regulations 4 and 5 shall not apply to:
 - (a) lighting of air-ports and transportation terminals;
 - (b) lighting for police, fire and property-protection services, traffic lights, traffic and warning signs; and
 - (c) lighting required by law.
 - (6) hospitals;
 - (7) lighting for interior domestic purposes;
 - (8) lighting of a single exterior sign, not exceeding 25 watts, to designate:
 - (a) an office of a medical or dental practitioner, embalmer or funeral director, or pharmaceutical chemist;
 - (b) an ambulance, telephone or telegraph station; or
 - (c) premises providing sleeping accommodation for travellers;
 - (9) lands used for the purpose of an exhibition or fair held by or under the auspices of a society as defined in The Agricultural Societies Act, 1939; and
 - (10) the illumination of Niagara Falls for a period of not more than 2 hours between sunset and sunrise on Saturday and holidays.
- PART IV
7. Parts II and III shall not apply to the territorial districts of:
- (a) Algoma,
 - (b) Cochrane,
 - (c) Kenora,
 - (d) Manitoulin,
 - (e) Mississauga,
 - (f) Parry Sound, except the townships of Carleton Place, Conner, Cowper, Ferguson, Foley, Humphrey, McDougall and McKellar, the Town of Parry Sound and the Village of Rosseau,
 - (g) Rainy River,
 - (h) Sudbury,
 - (i) Thunder Bay; and
 - (j) Timiskaming.
- PART V
8. In these regulations,
- (a) "shop" means any building or a portion of a building, booth, stall or place where goods are handled or exposed or offered for sale, or where goods are manufactured and which is not a factory, but shall not include any part of a building used for office purposes, and
 - (b) "office" shall mean a building or part of a building occupied and used for office purposes only.

PENALTY PROVIDED BY THE POWER COMMISSION ACT FOR VIOLATION OF REGULATIONS

Any person refusing or neglecting to comply with any direction, order, regulation, restriction, prohibition or control made or exercised by the Commission under this section shall be guilty of an offence and in addition to any other liability incur a penalty of not less than $100 and not more than $500 and a further penalty of not less than $100 and not more than $500 for each and every separate day upon which such refusal or neglect is repeated or continued.

The penalties imposed by or under the authority of this section shall be recoverable under The Summary Convictions Act.

If further clarification is required please contact your local Hydro office.

Mt. Albert Tops League

"Stop the Mounties" has been the slogan all season long in the Lake Simcoe circuit but nobody proved equal to the task. When the shouting died last Thursday, Mount Albert had done it again. They had checked in with another Lake Simcoe Softball crown, their fourth.

It was almost a repeat of last year. Mount Albert again sank the challengers from Hope three games to one. They made their championship run in convincing style too with a 16 - 5 win last Thursday. Many a good citizen from Hope, along about the fifth innings Thursday, wished themselves anywhere but around the ball diamond at Mount Albert.

Mount Albert made two thundering frames, the third and fifth, do their championship talking. While coach Ned Tansley sat on the bench and boiled, Mount Albert rode into Don Glover for seven runs. Glover borrowed his first trouble after giving up a hit to Vern Pegg by walking the next three and a run across the plate, with Charles Green and Kelly Case stroking out doubles to complete the route. That was all for Don Glover and he went to cover in the outfield.

Lonnie Ganton was brought in to do the hurling and Al Wilson the receiving. The switcheroo worked for a frame. Then Mr. Ganton found the roof caving in on top of him as Mount Albert threw together a trio of hits, two Hope errors and a long homer with the bases loaded by Ross Draper. Eight Mounties rode home on the wave of these shenanigans.

Mount Albert tacked on a sixteenth run for good measure but it was anti-climatical. Hope broke goose-eggs in the third with a pair of runs on bingles by Ken Harman and Cliff Ward. Hope sprouted three runs in a futile seventh uprising from those two hitsmiths, Ken Harman and Lon Ganton, and Bruce Townsley, but it was a dying kick as Ken Mitchell closed up shop and halted the budding rally.

Ken Mitchell pitched another steady game. Hope, it's true, found him for 11 hits but when the chips were down Mitch was there with the bestest and mostest of good hurling. It would be a difficult task to single out an outstanding Mount Albert star. They were all good. Charlie Green went far for the course, four for four to head the hitters. Ken Harman, Cliff Ward and Ross Eves topped the Hope hitting performances on three each. Another Holland Landing citizen, Gordie Cook, though absent from the hitting parade, gave out with some sparkling patrolling in the outfield.

Hail the Champs: Vern Pegg 1b, Morley Case rf, Harold Watts

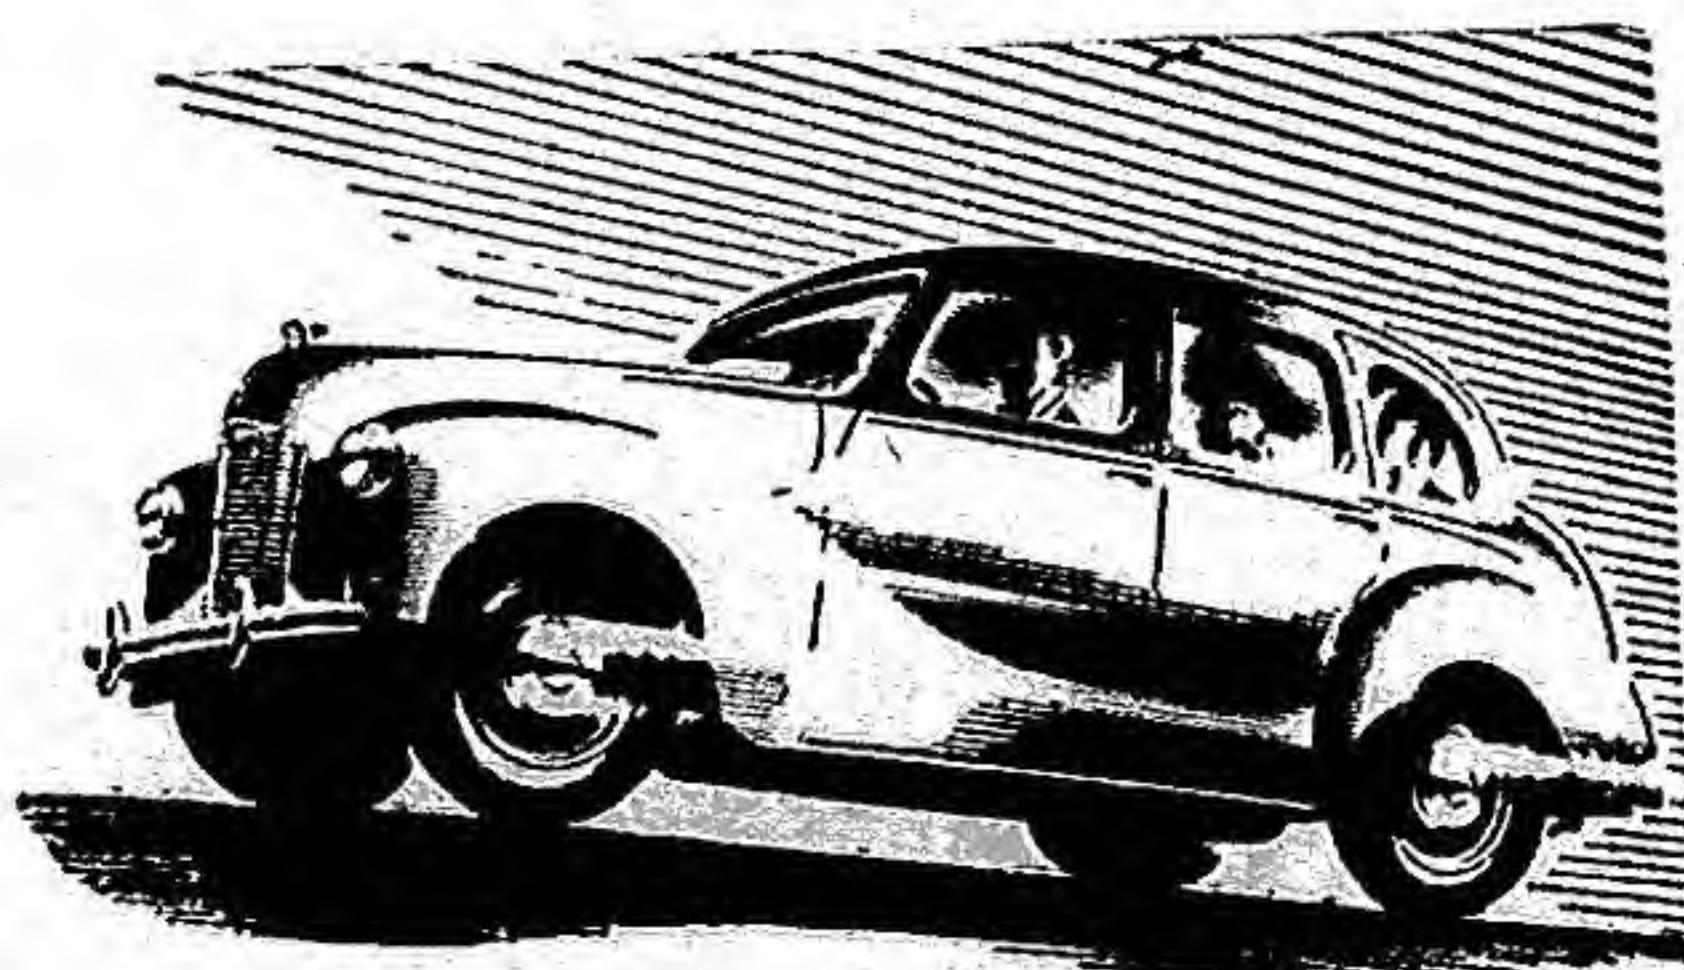

2b, Doug Ross ss, Ken Mitchell p, Ross Draper c, Doug Simpson 3b, Charlie Green lf, Kelly Case cf, manager-coach, Murray Roberts.

To Conduct Preaching Mission At Christian-Baptist Church

Beginning Sunday, Oct. 2, at 11 a.m. and continuing through to Friday night, Oct. 7, Rev. J. K. Holland, Toronto, will conduct a preaching mission in the Newmarket Christian Baptist church. Many friends of the church will be happy to note this event and are cordially invited to be present at any and all of these services.

Mr. Holland is the president of the Board of Evangelism of the Baptist churches of the convention of Ontario and Quebec. His work carries him into a full comprehension of the rural church and its needs. He comes fresh from an experience that has been most impressive to him—he was one of the inter-faith committee of Toronto clergymen who rendered such untiring and effective service to survivors and relatives of those who were lost in the Noronic tragedy.

Mr. Holland is a widely travelled man and brings to the pulpit a background of great experience in the field of evangelism and church leadership. He is a son of the "Land of the Heather" and brings with him the inimitable grace and wit of his native heritage.

REV. J. K. HOLLAND
The services will be held in the church on Sunday at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. and each evening through to Friday at 8 p.m. Special music has been arranged, including local and visiting talent. Everyone will find a welcome at these services.

H.S. To Assist Work Of Diabetic Survey

A meeting of the Diabetic Association of Canada was held in Toronto on Monday night. Attending from Newmarket were Mrs. M. B. Seldon, Mrs. N. L. Mathews and Mrs. C. D. Barber who represented the Home and School Association. This organization has volunteered to assist in the coming diabetic survey in Newmarket by seeing that all women in the town go to the test centres. Following the testing of the children in the public, separate and high schools and the factory employees, the organization will canvass the town to determine those who have not been tested. To make the survey a success, 100 percent participation is essential.

The Monday night meeting was addressed by Dr. James H. Best who dealt with the use of insulin in the control of diabetes. The meeting was for patients with this disease, their friends and relatives. Dr. Best said that the disease has been recognized for many hundreds of years. The first record was made 30 years before Christ. Dr. Best traced the work done through the centuries by scientists in their battle to control the disease. Motion pictures accompanied the lecture.

Aurora Trinity W.A. To Hear Frances Gray

An afternoon program for the ladies of Trinity Anglican church, Aurora, has been arranged by the W.A. for Tuesday, Oct. 4, at 3 o'clock. The field secretary of the Anglican Women's Training College, Miss Frances Gray, has been asked to come to describe the efforts the church is making to train its young women for domestic and missionary work in Canada and overseas. Miss Gray has a new set of Kodachrome slides showing the life of the women in college, and she will make the showing of the slides the main part of her talk. An invitation has been sent to the women of nearby parishes. All are welcome. Tea will be served by the members of Trinity W.A.

determine those who have not been tested. To make the survey a success, 100 percent participation is essential.

The Monday night meeting was addressed by Dr. James H. Best who dealt with the use of insulin in the control of diabetes. The meeting was for patients with this disease, their friends and relatives. Dr. Best said that the disease has been recognized for many hundreds of years. The first record was made 30 years before Christ. Dr. Best traced the work done through the centuries by scientists in their battle to control the disease. Motion pictures accompanied the lecture.

Mrs. H. Cane Speaker Reminisces On Newmarket

Speaking to a group of approximately 130 people at the opening meeting of the Home and School Association, held in the town hall on Tuesday night, Mrs. Howard Cane reminisced about Newmarket. Mrs. Cane was the first president of the Home and School Association which had its beginning in 1920 at Alexander Muir school. Introduced as a "valued citizen and a friend of the people of Newmarket," Mrs. Cane told of the humble beginnings of the organization in town. She said "we felt that it wasn't good enough to leave everything to the teachers." The parents should help.

This first parent-teacher group purchased Books of Knowledge, a dictionary and a piano for Alexander Muir school and planted trees, shrubs and tulips about the grounds.

In 1922, an association was begun at the King George school and at the first meeting a Mr. McCree of the federation spoke on the subject, "Broaden your view of education," as applicable to a subject for today as it was then. Mrs. Cane said, "It is fine to look ahead, but it is also very satisfying to look back. The test of a community is the quality of its adults, the quality of its children. You can't have a deficient education and build efficient leaders. The youth of today must be given something worthwhile. Each child deserves to have a teacher he can love, respect and follow."

Another of the early speakers was Dr. Alan Brown, pediatrician. During the course of his talk, Mrs. Cane said that she was seated next to an elderly gentleman. He kept shaking his head in disagreement and saying, "Tis, tis." After the address, Mrs. Cane asked him if he did not agree with the doctor's new ideas. He answered, "Certainly not. I'm his father." (And so time passes.)

In 1925 Stuart Scott school joined King George school with Mrs. J. A. Maitland as president.

Plan To Continue Parcels To Britain

A meeting of all persons interested in the personal parcels for Britain service will be held in the Newmarket council chambers on Tuesday, Oct. 11, at 8:30 p.m. This is a vitally important meeting for plans must be made for the continuation of the service. More funds are needed, particularly for the Christmas parcels which have assumed a special spot in the lives of the British recipients.

All town and church organizations are requested to appoint representatives from their groups to attend this meeting. Open to the public, a special invitation is extended to those who have been in communication with the persons overseas receiving these parcels.

Mention has been made on many occasions in this paper of the fine job being done by the citizens of Newmarket in supporting this parcel service for the British people. Newmarket has sent this past year an average of two parcels a day to Britain. That is an enviable record and one which deserves continuation.

On Monday an additional 71 parcels were packed at the depot for shipment. It is through such services that the reputation of Newmarket has been spread afar as a town which is willing to help those across the seas.

H.S. Ass'n Presents Opening Program

The opening meeting of the Home and School Association was held at the town hall on Tuesday evening. Mrs. E. A. Mitchell presided over the exceptionally well attended meeting.

A community sing-song led by Mr. Herman Fowler, Mus. Bac., got the evening off to a good start with everyone enjoying the old favorites. Invocation was read by Mrs. Bert Budd in the absence of Mrs. M. E. R. Boudreau, religious convenor.

In her words of welcome to the parents, teachers and friends, the new president, Mrs. Mitchell, said that the aim of the Association is "to bring closer co-operation between the home and the school." Continuing, she said, "Actually our club is one of prevention, in this way it is designed to prevent ill health by developing good health throughout the schools; to prevent weak mentality and immorality by developing strength of mind and self control.

"It seeks to prevent unhappiness and selfishness by developing contentment and love of service to our homes and to our community. As we plan and work together this year, we should grow in understanding and tolerance."

In charge of the program for the evening was Mrs. Bert Morrison, citizenship convenor, who introduced the guest speaker of the evening, Mrs. Howard Cane. Mrs. Cane gave an interesting address on Newmarket, telling of the past activities of the Home and School Association as well as many other anecdotes of happenings in the town.

Two of Miss Patterson's pupils provided the musical section of the program. Barbara Watts played two piano selections, Prelude and Alumbblatt. A Variation of Three Blind Mice was the title of Marion Eves' piano solo.

Guide, Scoutmothers Meeting

The Scout Mothers' Auxiliary and the local association of the Girl Guides are holding a joint meeting at the Newmarket Scout Hall on Monday, Oct. 3, at 8 p.m. To this meeting are invited the mothers of all Brownies, Guides, Cubs and Scouts.

Plans are being considered for the amalgamation of the two organizations with possibly the continuation of the separate executives so that financial matters could be handled independently according to the rules of both the Scout and Guide movements.

An interesting program is being planned and a full attendance is requested. This is an important meeting.

In 1928, Alexander Muir joined and from that time on it was officially known as the Home and School Association.

Many amusing anecdotes were recalled by the guest speaker and many a pathetic one from her long associations with the children who came to her attention through her years of service with the York County Children's Aid.

"The interest and attention shown during this first meeting promises an active and full year in the association. Not only parent and teachers are invited to join the group, but all who are interested in the welfare of children."

Dancing Classes Begin In Aurora Saturday

Children's classes in ballet and tap dancing will begin this Saturday morning in the Legion Hall at the south end of Aurora on Yonge St. These classes are all under the personal direction of Mrs. Wm. J. Landen. The first class in ballet and tap for little girls ages 9-12 will have their first lesson at 9:30 a.m. The second class is for the smaller girls from 5-9 and this class will meet at 10:45 a.m. while the older group from 13-16 will have their lesson in ballet, tap and some stretching and limbering from 12 until 1 p.m.

There is another group forming for the "Teen Aged" up to 15 years of age to learn modern ballroom dancing. This group will meet at the Legion Hall in Aurora twice a month for a period of one and a half hours. As the season progresses there will be special parties and dances for this group. Registrations are now being accepted.

All those interested in the Saturday morning classes for the children are requested to be at the Hall in order to register, if you have not already done so, or phone Mrs. Landen, Aurora 5623.

BARBARA SELLERS WEDS M. E. HAINES

Gladioli, against a background of autumn leaves, formed the setting on Saturday, Sept. 24, at the home of the bride's parents for the marriage of Barbara Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Sellers, Jackson's Point, and Melbourne Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Haines, Newmarket. Rev. E. A. Nichol officiated with Miss Isabelle Sellers, sister of the bride, playing the wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white nylon, with long embroidered veil, gathering to a head-dress of braided taffeta. She wore matching taffeta mittens and carried a white cascade bouquet of roses and gladioli.

Her only attendant was Miss Evelyn Sellers, gowned in ice blue tulle taffeta. Her head-dress was pink gladioli and roses and she carried a matching cascade bouquet.

Harry Haines, Newmarket, was his brother's groomsman. A reception followed with the bride's mother receiving in a grey printed crepe. Assisting, the groom's mother wore grey and maroon. Both wore corsages of roses.

For travelling, the bride wore a blue crepe dress with black coat and matching accessories. After a motor trip to Halifax and the east coast, they will reside in Toronto.

First Auxiliary Euchre Announce Winners

On Monday, the Ladies' Auxiliary, Canadian Legion, Branch 385, Aurora, held its first euchre and bridge in the Legion hall. The party was well attended. The following are prize winners: euchre, ladies, Mrs. P. Huse, Mrs. E. West, Mrs. C. Phillips; men, Mr. A. McLean, Mr. C. Fry, Mr. J. Murphy; bridge, Mr. Bert Cronin, Miss Helen Devlin.

The draw was won by Mr. Bill Gleaves. The next euchre and bridge will be held on Monday, Oct. 24, at 8 p.m.

Listen First to News Hobby Club Survey Shows

Hope — The Women's Hobby Club met at Mrs. W. H. Wilmet's home, Lindenlea Farm, Sept. 13 with a good attendance of members and several visitors. The meeting opened with community singing with Mrs. Lorne Paynter at the piano.

The roll-call responses to "my favorite radio program" gave the news broadcasts a lead with Mrs. Kate Aitkens' program a close second. Next month roll-call will be the answer to "an interesting place I visited during the summer."

A box of fruit was to be sent to Mrs. Jas. Breen and a greeting card to Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Lunney wedding anniversary.

The question box, convened by Mrs. Sheldon Walker, was very interesting and informative. The three queries provoking most discussion were "What is the measuring-stick of our present monetary system?" and "Does a woman refer to her husband as 'Mr.' during conversation?" also "Why doesn't the school bus come down the fourth concession as last year?"

Gifts and parcels were shown over Mrs. J. Zmijewski. The October meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Sheldon Walker.

Business Women Form Library For Hospital Patients

A lending library for the patients of York County hospital is being formed by the Newmarket Business and Professional Women's club. At the September meeting Mrs. Wilfred Oliver was elected librarian.

This library will provide books for the patients twice a week, free of charge. A library wagon which is on order will make it possible to bring the books around to each bed so that patients may make their own choice of reading material. It is planned that the library will be in operation before Christmas.

The majority of patients at the hospital are from out of town and will welcome this opportunity to receive reading material regularly. Formed as a service to the community, the club asks the co-operation of citizens of Newmarket in the project.

An appeal is made by the organization to everyone for books, suitable for such a library. No magazines are wanted. Patients are already supplied with these through individual contributors. Two book depots have been set up on Main St. to receive the books.

One is at the Canadian National Express office of Mr. H. Gladman and the other is at Thompson's Beauty Salon. Check through your book shelves and discard those which could bring reading pleasure to hospital patients. The support of everyone is needed if this therapeutic service is to be successful. A good book makes the time pass more quickly.

Pocket editions are popular. They can be handled so easily by the bed patients. However, all contributions of books are welcomed. If any minor repairs are needed, members of the club will attend to it.

PRESBYTERY W.A.

On Thursday, Oct. 6, it is planned to hold the semi-annual meeting of the Woman's Association of the Centre Presbytery. The meeting is to be held in the Richmond Hill United church at 10:30 a.m. with luncheon being served at noon. It is expected that the work of the past six months will be reviewed and plans laid for the future.

How to GIVE YOUR CHILD A BETTER START

Your little boy or girl has a long road to travel before meeting with the responsibilities of manhood or womanhood. Your own experience, however, will tell you how wonderfully helpful a Junior Estate Policy will be. Until your child is 21, this policy includes a little life insurance and an emergency cash fund to use, if necessary, for education, wedding plans, or a start in business. Best of all, at age 21 the life insurance automatically increases to $5,000 without change in premiums. Imagine how helpful it will be to your son in manhood to have five or ten thousand dollars essential life insurance at childhood's premiums. And there are suitable options for girls.

IT'S A Woman's World

By CAROLINE E. ION

The smell of fall is in the air... from the kitchen... the tantalizing scents of pickling; from the garden... the sweet aroma of the moist earth; from the fireplace... the pungent odor of a wood fire. The smell of the wood smoke from the first fall fires drifts across the fields as we harvest our vegetable crops. The sight of the fire crackling with its leaping flames brings to mind the radiant colors which autumn boasts. It is a season made for long walks.

To many people, the favorite season is spring with its promise of sultry summer days, its freshness of color and its welcome new growth. But we still think that fall steals the show. Fall is a woman mature in her beauty. Knowing her days are few she squanders her wealth of vibrant color and glorious harvest for all to share. The golden and bronze mums in corsages at the football games; the air tangy with a nip of frost, but warmed by the sun reluctant to relinquish his role as star; the harvest of the fruits and vegetables—yes, this is the season of richness and plenty. Beside it, spring is a pale young thing, uninteresting in comparison.

Services of thanksgiving for the harvest were held in many churches across the country on Sunday. Decorated with the sheaths of corn, pumpkin, fruits and chrysanthemums they gave visual proof of nature's bounty. Like so many other phases of our modern living we remember to ask for all we miss, but forget frequently to say "thank you" for the gifts received.

The frost earlier this week nipped the tender cucumber vines, but more than compensated for these losses in the beauty of the leaves. The maple at the head of Eagle St. by the Yonge St. stoplight defies description. Its colors vary from a fierce, fiery red through tawny orange and copper shades to some beautiful clear yellows. Some of the tree was still untouched by the frost when we saw it and the dark green of these leaves completed the picture of color contrast.

Despite all that has been written about the wastage each fall when the leaves are burned, people still continue the practice. The compost pile is the place for these leaves. They will reward your efforts by returning to the soil, next spring, when the decomposition is completed, the humus needed for top rate gardening. Gather the leaves and place them on the compost pile and sprinkle a few inches of soil after each few inches of leaves, alternating these layers.

To the beginner who may not know just what we mean when we refer to this important item, a compost heap, we add that it is merely the gathering place for all the garden refuse which heretofore you probably burned. Gathering it in one spot (the recommended size is usually four feet square, but naturally depends on the size of the individual garden), the old leaves, grass clippings, tomato plants, in fact all the rakings from your busy sessions with the hoe, should find their way to the compost pile. After each layer of material is added, it is covered with earth and from your local seed store you can purchase one of the modern powders which when sprinkled over the pile will speed up the decomposition. Soil needs additions of humus and particularly the type of loam found locally. This is an inexpensive method of doing this.

Fall means many other things besides gardening and pickling, to the small fry at school the important business at the moment is the coming field days. Each day when a youngster is late returning from school, the answer is, "but, mom, we had to practice the jumping", or the racing or something. We are certain that Newmarket will definitely produce material for the 1960 olympics if such concentrated effort is continued.

CLARKE KEMP WEDS MARY STOCKWELL

The marriage of Mary Elizabeth, daughter of the Hon. Ralph Stockwell, K.C., and Mrs. Stockwell, Cowansville, Que., to Mr. Clarke Kemp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Kemp, Toronto, formerly of Newmarket, took place on September 10 at 4 o'clock in the morning at the United Church, Cowansville, Rev. Geo. G. Connolly officiating. Mrs. Guy Cousens played the wedding music and Mr. James Anderson, Montreal, sang during the signing of the register. Gladioli, zinnias and phlox, arranged with evergreens and ferns, were used to decorate.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was in a gown of white satin, the fitted bodice fastened at the back with tiny buttons, having a heart-shaped neckline and the full, crinolene skirt falling into a long train. Her veil of tulle illusion, extending beyond the hem of her train, was held by a coronet of satin, embroidered in pearls and she carried a bouquet of Pinnocchio roses and white carnations.

Mrs. Ian Alexander, Brockville, as matron-of-honor, and Mrs. John Struthers, Newmarket, and Miss Boulah Taplin, Halifax, as attendants, were in frocks of pale green slipper satin. They wore caps of matching tulle and satin and matching mittens; the matron-of-honor carried a bouquet of rust gladioli blossoms while the bouquets of the attendants were of yellow gladioli blossoms.

Mr. Hugh Stratton, Montreal, acted as best man for Mr. Kemp and the ushers were Mr. David Hone, Montreal, and Mr. Cedric Wisdom, Ottawa.

Mrs. Stockwell, the bride's mother, was in a floor-length gown of horizon blue crepe and wore a matching hat of velvet, trimmed with a blue ostrich plume, navy blue accessories and a corsage bouquet of pink delight roses.

Mrs. Kemp, mother of the bridegroom, wore a floor-length gown of caramel crepe with a bodice of Alencon lace, a picture hat of brown taffeta and a corsage bouquet of Johanna Hill roses.

Mrs. W. S. Cotton, grandmother of the bride, was gowned in black crepe with touches of Alencon lace and wore a hat of black velvet, trimmed with black and pink osprey feathers and a corsage bouquet of red roses.

The reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents, where the bride's table, centred with the wedding cake, was arranged with pink roses and white candles in candelabra.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Kemp left for the Laurentians, the bride travelling in a suit of French wine wool, under a grey wool topcoat, and wearing grey accessories and a corsage bouquet of gardenias.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Kemp, Toronto, Mrs. R. M. MacNaughton, Mr. and Mrs. John Struthers, Newmarket.

Spank For Improvement

Gary, four years old, becomes rebellious when he is spanked for being naughty.

When Gary is spanked for being naughty, he goes out into the garden—no, not to eat worms—and crushes his mother's best plant. Gary is old enough to know that such behavior will bring more disfavor, but what does he care. Obviously, spanking puts Gary in a bad frame of mind. If discipline doesn't leave the child in a better attitude than before, it is not useful discipline.

Little children can be very annoying with their noise and disorder and their childish insistence on their wishes. However, it is necessary to locate the underlying cause of the mistake, the disobedience, the wilfulness, and proceed to remove the cause. Until mother sees through and under and beyond Gary's behavior, nothing she does will help. Children develop by passing through certain stages. They are motivated to do things, for which they shouldn't be held accountable.

Spankings affect children differently. Unlike Gary, some children show no outward signs of frustration, but they inwardly bear grudges against the one who inflicts the punishment. In other instances, spankings don't fizzle on the young culprits. Children who fear spankings aren't usually the little angels they appear to be—but rather than be caught in a misdemeanor, develop sneaking ways and tendencies toward dishonesty and prevarication.

Good discipline trains for right ways of living and helps the child want to do what is right.

THE HOMEMAKERS
Tricks With Tomatoes

After the nip of frost earlier this week, most homemakers will have an abundance of green tomatoes. Picked green, before they were touched by the frost, some should be put away to ripen slowly for use later on in the season. For this, choose ones that although green, are mature, free from insect injury, growth cracks or skin punctures. Wrap each tomato individually in paper and store in a closed box or drawer in a cool, dry place. They will ripen slowly and should keep for weeks. Another method is to pull the vine before any signs of frost injury are apparent and suspend the vine from the ceiling of a cool (50 degrees), dry storeroom. Usually tomatoes stored in this manner under favorable conditions will continue to ripen until Christmas.

CHOW CHOW
30 Medium green tomatoes (7½ pounds)
½ Cup salt
½ Medium cabbage (3 cups minced)
3 Green peppers
2 Sweet peppers, red
3 Medium onions
6½ Cups vinegar
2 Cups sugar
1 Tbsp celery seed
1 Tbsp mustard seed
½ Tbsp whole cloves

Put tomatoes through food chopper, using coarse blade. Combine with salt and let stand ½ hour. Put into cheesecloth bag and let drain overnight. Add cabbage, peppers and onions which have been put through food chopper. Mix vegetables together and add vinegar, sugar and spices, tied loosely in a cheesecloth bag. Cook, uncovered, over low heat until vegetables are tender, about 20 minutes. Pour into hot, sterilized jars and seal. Yield: about 12 cups.

BRUCE JEFFERSON WEDS TORONTO GIRL

Agnes Grace, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Vallance, Toronto, became the bride of Bruce C. Jefferson, only son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Jefferson, Newmarket, in Hillcrest Church of Christ, Bathurst St., Toronto, on September 10.

Rev. Harold J. Baldson performed the ceremony. Miss Wickson was at the organ and Miss Joyce Robinson was soloist.

Given away by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin with train and a finger-tip veil of embroidered tulle held by a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of pink roses, white gladioli and stephanotis.

Marion Jefferson, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid in shell pink taffeta with Dutch cap and mitts to match. Her flowers were talisman roses with pastel shades of pink and mauve gladioli.

Wm. Brookes, cousin of the groom, was best man and James and Wilfrid Vallance, brothers of the bride, ushered.

At her home, Mrs. Vallance received in powder blue with navy accessories. The mother of the groom was in wine with black.

For a trip to Muskoka, the bride wore a grey suit with navy accessories.

BRUCE BLACK WEDS IN WINNIPEG

Miss Joyce Elhel Porter became the bride of Mr. Bruce Orval Black in a quiet ceremony on the afternoon of September 10 in Young United church, Winnipeg. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Porter, Edmonton, Alta., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chalmers Black, Kettleby.

Dr. W. E. Donnelly performed the ceremony before an altar decorated with bouquets of autumn-hued gladioli and fernery.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin, styled with a low scalloped neckline, lily-point sleeves and long torso bodice. The bouffant skirt formed a slight train. Her finger-tip veil of illusion was held by a coronet of white lace and she carried a cascade bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Bernice Porter was her sister's only attendant and wore a colonial fashioned gown in azure blue net and lace with matching bonnet and gloves. She carried a colonial bouquet of sweetheart roses and blue cornflowers.

Mr. Ronald Munson, Winnipeg, was groomsmen and ushers were Mr. Robert Dunlop and Mr. Blair Porter, brother-in-law and brother of the bride.

Mr. Jim Fuller, Winnipeg, sang The Lord's Prayer and Because during the ceremony.

The reception was held at Moore's and the decorations on the bride's table included a triple-tiered cake, flanked by bouquets of pink and white asters and slim white tapers. The toast to the bride was proposed by her uncle, Mr. Roland Porter.

Leaving by motor for a wedding trip through U.S.A. the bride donned a powder blue gabardine suit with navy accessories and navy faille topper, and her corsage was of pink roses. The couple will reside at 600 Bronson Ave., Ottawa.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Chalmers Black, Mr. and Mrs. Grosskurth, Toronto, Mr. Harry Porter, Edmonton, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Dunlop, Ottawa, Mr. and Mrs. R. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. P. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. F. Porter, Minnedosa, Man., Mr. Blair Porter, Saltcoats, Sask., and Miss B. Porter, Washington, D.C.

The Common Round...
By Isabel Inglis Colville
OPERATION PENCIL

As a primrose on the river's bank "a primrose was, and nothing more" to someone, so a pencil to me, "a pencil was, and nothing more".

Of course that was before our Bogartown Women's Institute was taken on a tour through the Dixon's pencil factory by Mr. R. Ewing, the general foreman of the maintenance department.

I think I must have had some dim, distant idea that pencils, like Topsy, "just grew" and when, led by Mr. Ewing, we viewed operation after delicate operation, all essential to the life of the pencil that we use so carelessly, I was amazed, delighted and impressed.

Going into the factory in groups of ten, I think the first thing that struck us was the brightness and cleanliness and courtesy, for everywhere we went we were met by smiles and a willingness to add to our pleasure and information.

The life of a pencil, I suppose, begins in the tree which produces the wood of which it is made. We saw the delicate, thin strips which come ready treated for the next operation, which was grooving—so many grooves to the strip. I had always wondered how the lead got into a pencil, but seeing the fitting together of the strips solved that problem.

But what intrigued me was the immense amount of work involved in getting pencils into their gowns and bonnets and yes—jewelry!

Talk about grooming! A pencil is groomed within an inch of its life.

There, lying in state in their grooves, they are sped rapidly from one operation to another. Their rough edges are eliminated—wouldn't it be nice if all ours could be as easily gotten rid of?—they are smoothed, they are polished and re-polished till their satin coats glisten. Then comes the fitting of their jewelry and just how carefully their brass necklaces were fitted and grooved will always be a pleasure to remember, also the tiny rivets which hold these ornaments in place.

And as no lady—I always think of a pencil as a lady—is complete without a bonnet, so not many pencils are complete without a rubber. So here was another operation and at its conclusion the pencil proudly wore its neat little bonnet. Then there was the stamping on of the name which makes Dixon a household word all over the world.

We were taken to a room where Donald Cutting in charge of the lacquer department showed us a fascinating thing. There was a big metal vat filled with water and into this, Mr. Cutting poured red, yellow, green, blue, mauve and white paint. Then he took a pencil and dipped it—the result? A lovely marbled effect. I have one of those pencils in blues and white, which is a delight to the eye and which was my choice—we were given the choice and the pencils—among many similarly decorated ones. These pencils which were given us are a novelty, being some 14½" long.

We saw crayon pencils, carpenter's pencils and pencils with so many uses, including eyebrow pencils in all shades. We saw one machine which performed five operations and everywhere were pencils—pencils packaged, pencils in cartons, pencils in the rough and pencils polished beyond all recognition of their former state.

It was an illuminating afternoon which certainly widened our horizons as far as pencils were concerned, and our W.I. joins me in thanking the company, the employees and foremen who made such an afternoon possible.

ROBT. C. DALES WEDS JESSIE MOORE

Baskets of gladioli and glowing tapers provided the setting for the Saturday afternoon marriage of Miss Jessie Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Moore, to Robert Cleland Dales, son of Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Dales, Newmarket, on September 17 in the United church, North Bay.

Rev. F. L. H. Stymiest, M.A., and Rev. A. G. Smith performed the marriage ceremony, which was preceded by the singing of "The Lord's Prayer" by Miss Agnes McCubbin, who also sang "Through the Years" while the register was signed by the wedding party.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of broad taffeta fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, long sleeves coming to lily points over the hands and a flounced skirt which fell in luxurious folds to the floor. Her finger-tip veil of French tulle was crested by a crescent shaped headdress of tulle and she carried a bouquet of gardenias and garnet sweetheart roses.

Mrs. Reg Batley was matron of honor in a gown of pale blue French silk net. She carried an old fashioned nosegay. Bridesmaids, Miss Margaret Wilson, Toronto, and Miss Claire Kennedy, were respectively gowned in pink and orchid net. They also carried old fashioned nosegays and wore matching flowered head-dresses.

Tom Dales attended his brother as best man, while ushers were Jack Dales and Joe Dales.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the North Bay Golf and Country club where Mrs. Moore received in a burgundy crepe dress, a hat of burgundy velvet trimmed by grey feathers, grey accessories, a neckpiece of Alaskan sables and a corsage of Joanna Hill roses. The groom's mother, who assisted in receiving, chose a royal blue velvet dress with grey accessories, silver fox furs and a corsage of Talisman roses.

For the wedding trip to New York and points south, the bride chose an apricot wool suit with

MASSEY-HARRIS

CALF CLUBS SHOW IN HALL, AT FAIR

Sharon and Schomberg Calf clubs held their achievement days on Friday and Saturday respectively with the former holding their show at the Newmarket high school grounds, and the latter in conjunction with the Schomberg fair. Seven breeds were shown by 18 members of the Sharon club, eight of them first-year members. Eight Schomberg members showed in two breeds.

Murray Cupples and Bob Petch of the Sharon club were first and second in showmanship in dairy breeds, Lloyd Balsdon and Bill Armstrong in the beef breeds. The first prize winners received leather halters donated by the York County Holstein Breeders club.

Entries and the prize winners in order of merit were: Short-horn, Jim Hewlett; Hereford, Murray Cupples; Ayrshire, Bill Armstrong; Guernseys, Lloyd Balsdon, Aub Stinson, Allan Stinson; Jerseys, Doug Doner, Jim Morton; Aberdeen Angus, Margaret Arkinstall, Bill Arkinstall, Bob Petch; Holsteins, Ronald Breen, Merlyn Winch, Ronald Trebble, Jim Brown, Bill Taylor, Donald Breen, Stuart Toole.

Margaret Arkinstall is the only girl who is a member of a county calf club.

The Sharon show performed under difficulties, the weather changing to hail and rain while the judging was underway. Thanks to the co-operation of the principal, J. W. Lockhart, the students were released early so that they could watch the show. The Sharon club was complimented by W. M. Cockburn, agricultural representative, for their fine turnout and the interest they showed.

Jim Sheardown was first and Glen Atkinson a close second in showmanship at the Schomberg show. Entries in order of merit were: Holsteins, John Heacock, Glenn Atkinson, Glen Hulse, Bob Irwin, Bob Hamilton; Jerseys, Jim Sheardown, John Sheardown, Alfred Timmins.

Archie Wilson, assistant agriculture representative for Ontario county, judged the Sharon show, Harold Clapp, manager of Fraserdale Farm, the Schomberg show.

Mangel, 14½ Pounds Grown by A. Burns

A mangel was brought into The Era and Express office which weighs 14½ lbs., and measures 19 inches in length and 20½ inches in circumference. It was grown on the farm of Mr. A. Burns, Sutton West.

$2 Million Tent City Being Laid Out For Plough Matches

Installation of utilities for the "Tented City", a two million dollar display of farm machinery and equipment, has started at Burford, scene of the 1940 International Plowing Match. The event this year opens on October 11 and continues until October 14. Population of the "city" will reach more than 100,000 inhabitants at the height of the match.

Clark Young, treasurer of the Ontario Plowmen's Association, under whose auspices the match is held each year, and N. E. MacPherson, representing the Ontario Hydro Electric Power Commission, are supervising staking out of the unusual city. They report it will be the largest community of its kind ever built by the Association and the display of machinery will be the largest in Canada's history.

Burford is situated eight miles west of Brantford and it is on the farm of H. W. Amy, Burford, that the big match is taking place. Each year for the past 35 years the Ontario Plowmen's Association has sponsored this world famous match. This year, those in charge say, will outclass all others.

Mr. Young reports that applications for space in the unique miniature "city" have already exceeded last year's requirements by ten percent. Still others are expected in the next few weeks.

The "city" will have nearly a mile and a half of frontage for exhibitors and over half a mile of restaurants and a similar area of educational exhibits by government departments and other agencies.

Hydra power will run down each street and be available to each exhibitor. Fresh water will flow through special aluminum pipes along the entire length of the streets. Adequate supply of water always presents a problem but this has been overcome by the unique driving of sand points through the bottom of a well on Mr. Amy's farm. An excellent supply of water has thus been obtained and under test for several hours has shown a yield of 1,150 gallons per hour. Analysis shows the water to be of top quality according to department of health standards.

In a few days more lots to be used by exhibitors will be staked out and from then on this quiet

Touring Ohio Farmers Visit King F.-M. Co-op

Co-operation took on an international aspect on Tuesday morning, Sept. 20, when a bus load of members of the Farm Bureau of Ohio called on the King Farm Machinery Co-op at the Williams farm, 3rd line of King twp.

About 25 farmers and their wives on tour of central and south-western Ontario met president Harry Mills, secretary Bill Williams and members of the local group, viewed their co-op machinery and asked many questions about the set-up of this young and successful venture into real neighborly co-operation.

The visitors under the guidance of Leonard Harman, general secretary of the United Co-operatives of Ontario, are spending a full week visiting farm co-operatives and learning as much as possible about Ontario agriculture.

Mr. Harold Ghent, manager of the Newmarket Co-op, introduced the guests and in no time at all everyone was busy asking or answering questions.

The impression gained was that U.S. farmers are undergoing the same troubles as we are here in Canada, lack of labor and the fear of falling prices.

Mr. John Lewis, who is now in Lyndhurst Lodge, Toronto, spent the weekend with his parents.

PLEASANTVILLE

Mrs. M. R. Magee, Toronto, visited her sister, Mrs. Isaac E. Johnson, and family for a week. Mr. Harold Zavitz, Chatham, spent several days at the home of Francis Starr, also attending Pine Orchard Union church.

Mrs. Chas. Toole, Mrs. E. Starr and Mr. Harold Zavitz were Sunday guests of Messrs. Howard and Merton Toole at Mount Albert.

Mrs. Gardner and Mrs. Wm. Glover, Sr., Toronto, spent Sunday at the Glover home, the occasion being the celebration of the birthdays of Misses Nicki and Brenda, September 25 and 27.

Mr. E. Madill and Mrs. G. McClure were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. Earl Toole.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Hawtin and baby of Ottawa returned home on the weekend after visiting the former's mother, Mrs. E. Hawtin.

Mr. and Mrs. George Smith attended the wedding on Saturday in Toronto of Mr. Smith's brother.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Toole, Stuart and Elgin Toole, Mrs. G. McClure and Mr. E. Madill motored to the home of Orley McClure near Manchester on Sunday afternoon and in the evening called on Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Leask, Leaskdale.

Mrs. E. Bateman, Snowball, Mrs. D. Harrison, Aurora, and Mrs. C. Fisher, Newmarket, spent Monday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Sheridan.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy McNicol and baby of Dunbarton and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sheridan, Bradford, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. McNicol, Bogartown.

On Tuesday of last week about 25 members of the W.I. of Bogartown enjoyed a tour through the Dixon pencil factory in Newmarket, after returning to the home of Mrs. D. McClure for business and refreshments.

Miss Joyce VanLuvan has accepted a position in Lane's Drug Store, Newmarket.

The Willing Workers will meet on Wednesday, Oct. 6, at the home of Mrs. E. Johnson for a pot luck dinner and quilting and the sewing conveyor requests that all quilt patches be finished and handed to her this weekend.

The Pine Orchard Union church anniversary will be held on Sunday at 11 a.m. with Dr. M. Arkinstall as guest speaker and at 7.30 p.m. with speaker and choir from Bradford.

Dr. Banting Subject Of Patsy Quinn At Ex.
Three pupils of St. John's school, Newmarket, entered the public speaking contest at the C.N.E., Toronto on August 30. They were Antoinette Bondi, age 12, who spoke on a great Canadian artist, Tom Thompson, Kenneth Cassavoy, 10, a great Canadian athlete, Howie Morenz, and Patricia Quinn, 12, a great Canadian scientist, Dr. Frederick Banting.

Following is the speech delivered by Patricia Quinn, which gained her entry in the semi-finals of the contest:

"On a typical Ontario farm, a boy was born on November 16, 1891. Growing up on the farm and attending the schools, elementary and high, at Alliston, a mile and a half from the farm, Fred Banting developed the body, the mind and the spirit which contributed to the life of work and success which made him not only so famous but so useful to his fellow men.

"He chose medicine as his life-work and graduated in December, 1916, at the University of Toronto and shortly after enlisted in the world war of 1914-18.

"Banting's main work was in research on insulin, cancer, silicosis and army, navy, and air force medicine. The most famous of these researches led to the discovery of insulin, the effective means of control in the treatment of diabetes." This disease, known in the history of medicine for nearly two thousand years, was one of the diseases most dreaded by physicians, and in spite of valuable studies, especially in diet, little had been accomplished in these two thousand years to overcome this affliction.

"In the ages to come countless millions of diabetics who may laugh and love and live long of life because they can use insulin in controlling diabetes and in preventing its complications, will give thanks to Banting, their benefactor, for his legacy to mankind. Frederick Banting will go down in history with Louis Pasteur, Lord Lister and other geniuses, who have bequeathed to posterity gifts wrought by their brains, hearts and hands, that all the wealth of this world could not purchase.

"Canada was much grieved when Banting was killed in an aeroplane crash in Newfoundland in February, 1941, on his way to England on military service. But he will live forever in our memory as one of the greatest Canadians, a hero in the fight for the health and happiness of his fellowmen—loyal, devoted, unselfish, sympathetic, generous and modest. His love for children and his passion for assisting young scientists were outstanding characteristics of this great man we are all so proud to call "Canadian".

Weekly Garden-Graph
By DEAN HALLIDAY
Released by Central Press Canadian

In many areas late fall is an excellent time to plant roses. Planting usually gets underway in late October and continues through November, or as long as the ground remains frost-free and workable.

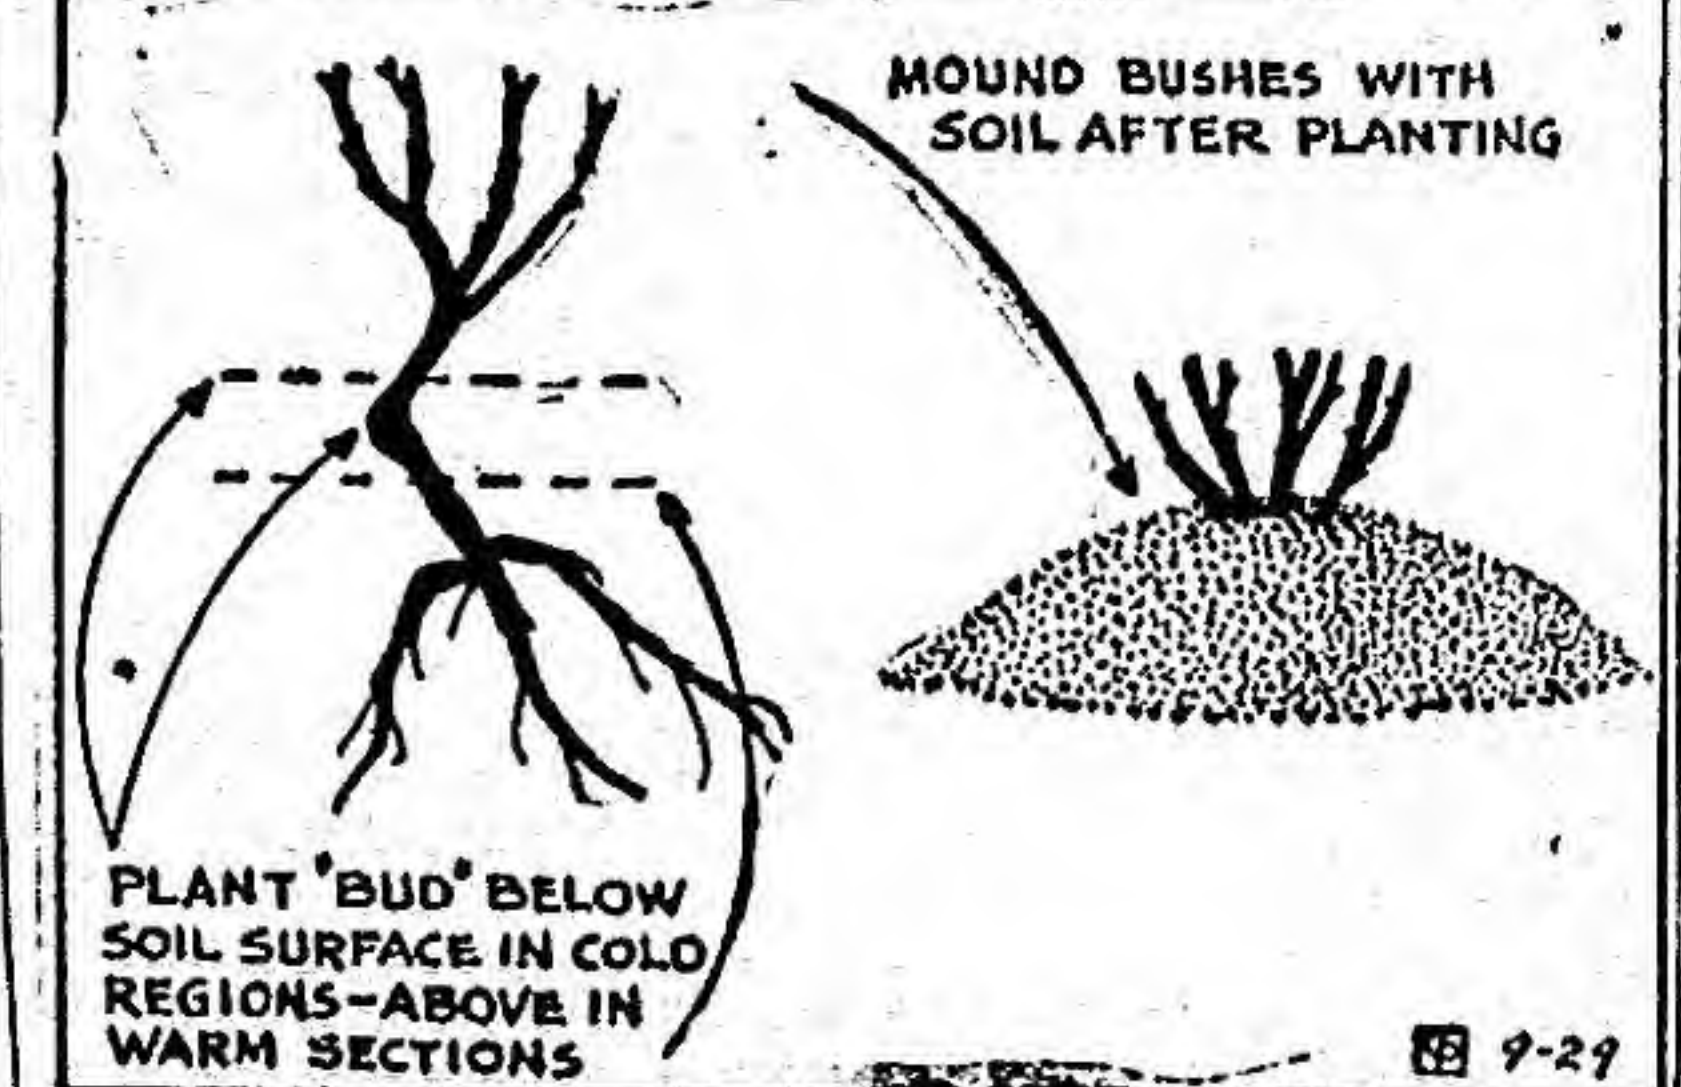

A few pointers to remember are: When the freshly dug plants are received, get them into the ground as quickly as possible. Keep them in a cool place until the planting operation can be started, then bring them out, one at a time, to plant, or carry them in a bucket, with water over the roots. All broken roots and top growth damaged in shipping should be pruned clean before setting each plant.

When planting hybrid tea and floribunda roses, holes spaced 18 inches apart and from nine to 12 inches in from the edge of the bed are dug large enough to permit spreading the roots in a natural, uncrowded position. The plant is set on a shallow cone of soil in the centre of the hole.

As shown in the accompanying Garden-Graph, set the "bud" just below the surface of the soil when planting in an area that has a cold climate. Where the climate is warm enough to avoid danger of winterkilling many growers set the "bud" slightly above the surface.

Fine soil should be worked firmly, with the fingers or a sharp-pointed stick, among the roots. As it is brought up over the roots it should be tramped in, taking care not to stuff the top or roots with the soil of the shoe.

After the hole is three-quarters filled it should be flooded with water. When this has settled, the rest of the hole should be filled with dry soil. Next mound soil as high as possible around the stems, as illustrated.

The anniversary services were well attended on Sunday with visitors from Willowdale, Toronto, Sutton and many neighboring villages. Rev. Campbell preached two very inspiring sermons. Those who weren't able to attend certainly missed a real treat. The music provided by Keswick choir and the solos by Mr. George Aldridge, Toronto, were enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bray visited Mrs. B. Deavitt and Norman on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Johnston, Willowdale, attended anniversary services on Sunday and visited friends in the community.

Miss Ruth Shanks and friend of Toronto spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Shanks.

Mr. Ross Rose and friend of Toronto visited his brother and sister-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rose, and called on Mr. and Mrs. Irvine Rose this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Blizzard spent last week visiting their daughter, Mrs. Ralph Sedore, at Jackson's Point.

Sunday school and church service will be back to its regular hour on Sunday. Sunday school at 2.15 p.m. and service at 3 p.m. This will be world wide communion Sunday so everybody is invited to attend the service.

EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS
by Don Graham

More than one man has said to me, in effect: "I've got a good job. My home life is satisfactory. And I'm probably as happy as the average man. But I still feel that my life is too hum-drum."

Such remarks usually prompt me to suggest a remedy frequently advised by psychologists. That is: "Lose yourself in a worthy cause—especially one that involves working with groups of people."

This gives one the deep inner satisfaction of helping to accomplish something of value to others—whether it be for the church, Red Cross, municipal affairs, charities, home and school association or other worthwhile organizations. And it adds a new dimension to one's outlook, making life richer and more purposeful.

Among the people who are most active in community affairs you will invariably find one or more life insurance agents.

This kind of activity comes naturally to the life insurance agent because he is used to helping other people. And his job—making it possible for many people to face the future with a sense of security—is itself a vital contribution to the welfare and happiness of his community.

Aurora Rec. Com. Closes Books On Busy Summer

Anne Reid Wins Bell Golf Tournament

Our golfing scribe gives a fine running account of a recent sports event that may cause a buzz or two on your telephone. The Bell Telephone Company employees held their first annual golf tournament last Saturday at the Highlands Golf Course, Aurora. First prize and the trophy was presented to Anne Reid 2nd prize, Eddie McElroy; 3rd, Jack Donaldson; 4th, Jack Lawson; 5th, Mickey Smith.

Jack Tensdale, who was ranked as a possible champion, finished well back as the clubs furnished by one of the other competitors came with a built-in slice.

Bert Atkins turned in a fine 112 though he hadn't played a round of golf for 25 years. Albert Revill was another old time divot-digger staging a comeback. Thirteen teed off at 2.15 p.m. with the last finishing just a whisker in front of darkness.

The tournament is likely to be an annual event provided the Highland Golf Course can stand the punishment.

Legion News

Another busy week for the Newmarket Legion branch. We went to King on Sunday to appear at that branch church parade. Other branches present were Aurora and Mount Albert. Aurora Boys' Band provided the martial music.

C Squadron of the Queen's York Rangers paraded and gave a display with three new tanks. Major Westall was in command.

The dart tournament is in full swing with Ian Meadus in the singles first place and Gord Downward and John Fisher in the doubles lead.

The Millionaires' Night at the Legion last week was a grand success and many citizens became wealthy for the evening. Don Brown won first prize, having made the fortune of $230,000, and Pearl Blair was second with $208,000, Leo Ross third with $120,000.

CELEBRATE THANKSGIVING
St. Paul's Anglican church, Newmarket, celebrated its Harvest Thanksgiving service last Sunday morning and evening. The church was suitably decorated with flowers, fruit and vegetables and the choir sang special anthems. The rector is planning to hold a confirmation, specially for adults in the near future.

The Woman's Auxiliary is planning to have a guest speaker at the October devotional and business meeting on Oct. 12 when Mrs. Revell of Toronto will address a joint meeting of the afternoon and evening branches.

W.M.S. THANK OFFERING
The thank offering meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of Aurora United church will be held in the United church parlors on Thursday, Oct. 6, at 3 p.m. Special speaker for the meeting will be Mrs. Hugh D. Taylor. Mrs. Taylor, who is overseas mission executive secretary, has just returned from visits to various overseas missions. Guest soloist will be Miss Edna Brown. Following the meeting a social hour is to be held.

NEWS 'N' VIEWS

By GEORGE HASKETT
ERA AND EXPRESS SPORTS EDITOR

Summer sports are making a last stand. Only one holdout remains. That's the North York Major Softball league. Vets are game up on Woodbridge in the semi-final set. Another win and the Vets' southern cousins go on the shelf. Bill VanZant whiffed twelve in putting the Bridgers away last Thursday. The flipper looks good enough to go on and capture the semi-finals and ditto the finals. The finals, should Woodbridge be put away, and there's no reason they can't be hashed, won't need any drum beating to sell. It'll be Aurora and Newmarket. Nuff said. Whether all the games will go under the lights at Schomberg or not remains undetermined at the moment. Teams might possibly try a pair of Saturday afternoon affairs. Charlie Ryan, "Ceegars" McDonald and league prexy Fred Morris will have to stick their chin out on that one.

Sidewalk superintendents! Lend an ear. The arena is getting more than it's quota of visitors. Machines and men are creating havoc there, before rebuilding a new, modern arena for Canal Town. Say fellows, we're talking especially to Davis Leather and Office Specialty strong men, are we going to let Canadian Hoffman men steal the thunder away? Hoffman Committee has about seventeen or eighteen men to throw into the rink the minute the pipe arrives for welding. There's work to be done before that stage. Voluntary work. Leave your name with Johnny at Vic's Shoe Repair. It'll bring ice faster and cut down cost. How about it? Let's show folks what can be done with a little community spirit.

Halos, congrats and we told you so: History does repeat Mount Albert did it again. Bust the Hope challenge three games to one. Almost a duplicate of last year. Great was Ken "Red" Mitchell. "Mitch" brought Mount Albert from a sixth place finish through to a fourth straight championship. Congratulations to the Mounties, Murray Roberts, Horace Pearson and the willing workers circle. About here should say Mount Albert rooting section were doing a good job, but by bang we won't, they didn't give out a peep in that last game. Lake Simcoe close-out. Aside to Longford Peeg, Ned Tansley, Bob Mitchell and Hope ball club. Congratulations on a fine showing and that came from the champs too.

Haskett's Hash: Our kickers, indoor soccerists, can sit this one out. Next year can bring a return. Game spreading, read where Midland earlier in the season were into it. Who knows maybe another year could bring about a Metropolitan Indoor Soccer league. "Johanne" "Busman" Hines springs the news. Metropolitan Hockey league executive meets this week. At least one other team seeks entry. That's Stouffville. There are rumors of Richmond Hill and Uxbridge making a bid. A problem for the executives to decide whether to stay put or increase the Metro family. Never heard of any spur lines running east. May be a little late but still, sincere congratulations to Bradford Softball club. They won the South Simcoe Softball Championship recently. Bradford Bowling club is looking for a way to cut Steve Simcoe's bowling scores. They've handed Steve the president's baton. Mayhap they thought a few executive worries might knock a point or two off his totals, which, incidentally, are just about tops in the district bowling circles. Dot Menar, Cec. McNeill and Willow Beach softball players exchanged their playing togs for their best bib and tucker and wound up the season with a chicken dinner last week. Busy man that Bill Bowen. When the Vets were going strong in the O.A.S.A. playdowns, Bill was with three teams, the Vets, Langstaff, his first love, and Eddie Blacks in T.A.S.A. playdowns. Thursday and Friday are the big days for the Public School Track and Field teams. Herb Cain left over the weekend to start another season with Hersey Bears. Golf clubs go into the hall closet in favor of a longer shooting iron.

Plan Fowl Dinner At Keswick Arena

The opening dance at the Keswick Memorial centre was a success. With good music, the dance was enjoyed by everyone and some are already asking the date of the next one.

The Thanksgiving dinner to be held in the Memorial Hall Saturday, Oct. 8, is the talk of the town. Following the dinner which is from 4.30 to 8 there will be a bingo and dance. Phone or write your friends about it and make it our greatest community effort. Our women are noted for culinary art and they are determined to make this their best.

Efforts are being made to bring in the car ticket stubs so that someone will be a new car owner on October 8 at the dinner but the car will have to be postponed if the stubs are not all in. Everyone is asked to have tickets sold and stubs returned.

At a recent Athletic Association meeting the decision was made that Clayton Purdy should be business manager of the association. The matter of the Memorial Centre management was discussed but no decision was made. We hope to be able to benefit by the experiences of other towns. If, in the meantime, any organization wishes to use the hall, arrangements must be made through Clayton Purdy or his appointee in his capacity of business manager of the athletic association.

Last night the Optimist club held an open discussion in the Memorial Hall and was asked to consider taking over the Memorial centre management. The members voted in favor of taking on the management subject to satisfactory arrangements with the Athletic Association.

The Four Square club will hold its annual dinner and business meeting as a unit in conjunction with the hot turkey dinner on Saturday, Oct. 8, at 6 p.m.

Mitchell To Coach Meteors

Aurora juniors will once again perform in O.H.A. C company and Red Mitchell, who coached the '49 Meteors, will be at the helm, but will not be manager of the artificial ice plant. That much became apparent as the Aurora arena commission, Aurora recreation commission and a group of hockey enthusiasts including Earl Attridge, Alf Childs, Andy Closs, Bert Tunney sat across the table together and discussed details. It is understood Mr. Attridge will be president of the club this year and a strong executive is being formed. Mitchell has been in attendance at Galt a couple of times and hopes to land three or four players to add to those on hand from last year.

Vets Slug To Win 11-6 Over 'Bridge

Play Again Tonight Washed Out Tuesday Vets Vs Woodbridge

Newmarket Vets and Woodbridge ran into another snag in finishing up their semi-final series. Tuesday evening the teams were in the second frame at Schomberg when the rains came. That was it for that evening.

The teams will make another attempt to settle the series tonight (Thursday) under Schomberg glimmers at 8 p.m. Vets need one more win to move into the finals. The Vets and Woodbridge are coming up with some fun pleasing ball. If you haven't witnessed a game under the lights, why not do it now. You want to know who was winning when the flood-gates opened? Woodbridge 1 Vets 0, second innings.

Aurora Legion Aux. To Unveil Portraits

The regular meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary, Canadian Legion, Branch 383, Aurora, will be held in the Legion hall, Yonge St. Branch 59, Toronto, will be guest, also the zone commander.

Rev. R. K. Perdue, Toronto, padre of the branch, will be there to unveil and dedicate portraits of Their Majesties, King George and Queen Elizabeth. Mayor Dr. C. Rose and T. A. M. Hulse, vice president of the Ontario command, will speak. All members are invited to attend at 8.40. A social hour will conclude the meeting.

GUESTS OF VANDORF

Members of the Aurora W.I. were guests Wednesday of Vandorf W.I. A splendid musical program was given by each. Mrs. D. Wilcox, Aurora, gave an interesting talk, illustrated by slides, on her recent trip to South Africa. Mrs. R. H. Corner, Aurora, district president, gave a short talk.

Plan Spode Showing Newmarket Trinity W.A.

The Woman's Association of Trinity United church, Newmarket, will meet in the Sunday-school room on Thursday, Oct. 6, at 2.45 p.m. The guest speaker of the afternoon will be Dr. Margaret Arkinstall. Mrs. R. D. Brown will be the soloist.

Plans are being completed for a Spode display on Friday, Nov. 4. This demonstration of the ever popular Spode will be open to the public.

Though showing a deficit in the hit column, Newmarket Vets timely slugging carried them to an 11-6 win over Woodbridge last Thursday at Schomberg. That win puts the Vets in the driver's seat in the semi-final set two games to one. Woodbridge compiled an imposing fourteen hit attack. Bill VanZant made sure many were wasted however turning extra stings in the pinches and kept Woodbridge at bay just when his would have made a whale of a difference.

The game started as a fine "how do do" for Woodbridge. They staked their pitcher, Wil Bannion, to a three run lead in the first two chapters. That was the only time he was to enjoy the luxury of a lead. Satisfied at this point they must get cracking. The Vets recovered abruptly. Said Mr. Bannion took a rocky ride down through the second, third and fourth. Harvey Gibney laid the ground work for two runs in the second with a base empy homer that skidded over the fence in right field. Joe Tunney doubled and was home free on Chas. VanZant's single. Vets added fuel to the fire with four in the third. Ken Tupling walked, Tod Mosier went aboard on a fumble, Harvey Gibney and Joe Tunney spanked out safeties. Long John Hisey made sure no ducks were left sitting on the pond with a three-ply blow. Fred Dillman opened the fourth with a bunt down first base line, a pair of Woodbridge errors and Joe Tunney's second double hoisted the MacDonald clan in front 9-3. Both teams bartered a pair of runs in the eighth to close out the scoring. Normie Legge and Ken Tupling scampered home for our pair.

The hits were 14 for the Bridgers, 11 for the Vets. Bill VanZant whiffed an even dozen. Joe Tunney was king of swing with four. Bill VanZant being the only Vet hit to miss the boat entirely. Jitter Nuttall and Jack Blake shot in front of the Woodbridge pack on three hits each.

Keith Davis Wins Tennis Singles Championship Again

Keith Davis, who more or less makes a habit of carrying off tennis trophies, has added another to the collection. Keith has again captured the Newmarket Tennis Club singles championship this year. After defeating Jerry Hugo 6-4, 6-2 to win his section, he has been awarded the championship as no winner was forthcoming from the other brackets.
